

The Office of Language Services is publishing an electronic, online version of its paper application form in compliance with the E-gov GEPA Act . By using an all-digital application form, the Office of Language Services is shifting more of its workflow into an electronic, paperless process. A more detailed justification of the changes can be found in our Supporting Statement (OMB 1405-0191).