We hire choreographers, carpenters, light, sound and set designers and costume designers and stitchers, as well as carpenters. They are all salaried except for choreographers, set, lighting and sound designers who independent contractors. The managing director/producer, the producer/director and the house manager are annual full time employees. We sell tickets, season and single online and by mail and in person. We attract 22,000-25,000 people to 21 performances. The climate in the Bay Area is not always comfortable at night - fog is common. Why an outdoor amphitheater was built in the Bay Area (a WPA project) is beyond me.
13754	Mail	Q52	Question 5 may need explaining. Two friends from Minnesota came to Montana looking for a sawmill for sale. None of the factors in Question 5 applied.
14086	Mail	Q52	One of the dumbest ever. $2.00 is a huge insult! I am sending it back - I have been paid $40-50 for less time consuming surveys.
14117	Mail	Q52	My company is a non-for-profit business operating a variety of ventures to create employment for people with disabilities. We are very unique - and I can only hope our participation has some value to your research.
14350	Mail	Q52	I am semi-retired and my main goal is to maintain a reasonable margin of profit in a dwindling market. However, I continue to work on new ideas and patents and other sources of income in this very uncertain economy. Government interference, over-regulation, and taxes are stifling small business and innovation. It is very discouraging. Globalization and career politicians are destroying small business, the middle class, and innovation. Welcome to the next global "Great Depression!"
14515	Mail	Q52	This business has been in business for 174 years and making less profit now than in the last 50 years. Due to government restrictions and banking. If they would ease up everybody could make better money, and that is the bottom line to business.

Appendix C. Open Ended Comments

14571	Mail	Q52	Company was sold two years ago to a private equity firm. Highly leveraged so primary goal is to pay off debt. Innovation and increased revenue is secondary. How many of your respondents experienced an ownership change in the last five years?
14627	Mail	Q52	Business has been very slow in the construction field for the past 4-5 years. We are doing the best we can to stay open but it's getting harder each week. We also have the weather to deal with in the concrete business. It's been extremely cold for the past three weeks so we have done nothing to increase profits. Not real sure what the future holds for this company.
14756	Mail	Q52	As with most surveys I feel they are wasted money. Use the money spent on surveys and studying things to reduce tax amounts. This will stimulate business. Get government out of businesses' way and things will proceed.
15017	Mail	Q52	Although only being here one year, I have been in senior management positions for similar manufacturing for over 23 years.
20304	Mail	Q52	In the last couple years we have made the largest investments back into this facility in its history. 95% of the investments have been because of federal regulations. No energy reductions (actually energy increases), no product improvement, no production increases or productivity increases. All have been for Federal Safety or Pollution Control. The investments in turn have greatly increased our tax base and those taxes. Good for U.S. business? I think not.
20693	Mail	Q52	The federal government is hindering business in all ways possible. Over regulation of banks, health care, EPA, entire mining industry. The over regulation is not by a law passed by the legislature but by political agenda. The government is picking winner and losers, thus throwing hundreds of thousands of people and business out of work.
21296	Mail	Q52	We have a very unique business that didn't quite line up with your study - you may want to consider us an outlier. Thanks.
21497	Mail	Q52	I'd love to meet the person who can complete this form in the half hour you stated having given sufficient thought to each question so that the resulting responses provide real value to the recipient.
22311	Mail	Q52	The government officials do not fully appreciate the fact that not enough cash is retained after taxes to grow a business making less than five percent of sales. All the retained cash is needed to fund the increased need for more working capital. For example: 100 percent of our profit will be needed to pay for the increased energy costs if they double (as predicted by the president). Absolutely no room for growth.
22541	Mail	Q52	1) Present location for business was great 42 years ago. City government has allowed area to degrade. 2) Six years our business building expansion took over two years to accomplish a 6 month building program. Over $60,000 in city building dept changes after they approved plans. Some of the changes were bad and resulted in cracks in the concrete floors. -Dumb. 3) Our business and reputation is based on quality castings and we have and are continuously improving our operation. 4) Finding qualified people to train into leadership - positions, particularly my engineering position is near impossible.
22832	Mail	Q52	Paying - too much unemployment - too much government money paid to stay off work, minimum wage; these cost, cost all of us working. We pay people to not work and too much bad attendance, as our government. They are paid better than free

23089	Mail	Q52	I have not seen the small reward that the letter said was enclosed but thought I'd fill it out anyway and maybe I could get a report.
23186	Mail	Q52	I oversee our subsidiaries from Addison, Texas. Nationwide Homes has their headquarters and manufacturing operation in Martinsville, Virginia. All questions were answered from the standpoint of the location being Martinsville.
23371	Mail	Q52	None.
23412	Mail	Q52	Start-up business starting third year.
24204	Mail	Q52	(1) Response is voluntary? Then why send another survey when we didn't respond to the first? (2) You state in your cover letter that there is "no need to access business records," then proceed to ask questions regarding percentages (#10, 20, 21). (3) Question 10 lumps managers and professionals. Huh? (4) You can have your $2.00 back.
24429	Mail	Q52	(1) Long (2) Thanks for the 2 bucks!
24575	Mail	Q52	We are a service business and are always looking for ways to become more efficient or productive. We want to grow our business without adding many personnel. Increased use of technology by our employees and our clients is critical to our success.
30352	Mail	Q52	Didn't know all answers; sorry.
30386	Mail	Q52	The recession is not over. We need healthy markets independent of government meddling and control. The assumption that government can help - other than by being a customer - is false.
30849	Mail	Q52	We are a generation and transmission electric cooperative.
30915	Mail	Q52	The single greatest driver of our business in the recent past and near future is advanced manufacturing and automation. We also put great emphasis on lean manufacturing, cost reduction and speed to market.
31303	Mail	Q52	ObamaCare is going to hurt our ability to expand and grow due to health care costs rising 40 percent in 2014.
31505	Mail	Q52	Make it easier to be able to borrow money.
32248	Mail	Q52	These questions are not pertinent sawmill, woods, industry.
32646	Mail	Q52	In the past two years the only innovations to the movie business is the change from film projectors to digital 2D and 3D. This has caused small theatres to close - mostly because of equipment costs and installation costs. Film projectors, if kept serviced and maintained, could last 50-100 years and still put a quality picture on the screen. The movie industry has now fallen prey like all technology to the need to have to buy new every six months to a year. Businesses can't afford to do this. The cost of health care, especially in Hawaii; any worker who works 20 hours is entitled to paid health care. Do the Math.
32735	Mail	Q52	Crop production (yields) highly dependent on weather. Sales are slow but steady - relative to world population growth. Company is a cooperative - our members have ownership and receive profits back in equity patronage.

33183	Mail	Q52	Unfortunately I don't believe we are much help to your survey. We have a longstanding reputation in community and city/county jurisdictions. Specialized professional service. The average tenure is now about 16 years. The economic turn down hit our industry very hard. All owners took 10-20% cuts in pay and employees took cut in hours. We made it work. No loans. We did cut workforce in half at 2008. Work holding firm now.
33220	Mail	Q52	Because our business access capital to fund account receivables for clients, the fund utilized are not directly utilized by our company, but are essential to build business.
33292	Mail	Q52	Not doing this to be a nice guy. Doing because you hired our football coach - Guns up.
33438	Mail	Q52	Innovate is a very strong word - it implies creativity and likely significant changes. We work more to solve problems or improve our production processes. We don't consider that innovating as this is an old/mature technology.
33467	Mail	Q52	We manufacture and distribute top soil, bark, mulches, and compost and associated landscape materials. My husband and I started the business in 1978. He died three years ago. Our biggest problems are conflicting land use regulations, cost of diesel fuel, and lack of adequately trained diesel mechanics and helpers. (Our business uses lots of big machinery and trucks - all of which break!) Thanks for the $2.
33920	Mail	Q52	This economy is the worst for small business that I have seen in my 46 years. State and federal government has become a detriment to business and the economy.
34015	Mail	Q52	This is too time consuming - I have a job.
34245	Mail	Q52	Just for insight, in 2008-2009 when the economy took a dive, we had three locations and 22 employees. We are down to one location and seven employees. We have maintained for a few years now. Our company survives on the housing market as do many others. If the housing market would turn around, we could create so many more jobs across the country!
34466	Mail	Q52	I do not know how we were selected for this survey because most of it does not seem to apply to our type of business. We only do custom fabrication for the pharmaceutical and biotech industries. The business has grown steadily since it started in 1990 in one of the owners' garage. We have a web site with contact information but practically all our new business is by word of mouth. Advertising does not work because our customers are looking for someone to build a custom product with quality as well as quick and on time delivery. Customers are building or remodeling facilities so delivery is sometimes tantamount to their success and they want a company they can depend on. Therefore, we have worked hard to build a reputation of being straight with our customers and telling them what we can do and following through on it. Our biggest problem is funding and cash flow. All of our cost, labor and materials, are up front. Then it takes 8-12 weeks to produce the product. We have to design each vessel from specifications the customer requests. Therefore, how we fabricate can change from one vessel to the next. After the product is shipped the customer then will take 45-60 days to pay. We have no bad debt; it just takes a while for the money to come. Because our customers are all over the USA we do most our communication over the internet. Our employees are at minimum highly skilled. Because we do custom we have trained most of our employees for the skills needed. They sometimes come to us with basic skills but we look for people who have knowledge of how the materials work and react, and can think, reason things out, and work independently. This is sometimes a challenge. We have very little turnover after the second year of employment. The first year is where practically all of our turnover happens. Our suppliers are very specific because of the traceability and testing required of our product. We work under and are authorized by the ASME code and National Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessels. We are listed as a manufacturer but our business is different because we do not sell off the shelf or to the public.

34744	Mail	Q52	I would appreciate assistance with innovative ways to improve this company.
34897	Mail	Q52	I think this survey has been somewhat duplicated by at least two other governmental agencies. Having done many of these over the years, I believe government intervention is a business restraint, not a help. The more government, the worst it seems to get. Looking at government managed operations, i.e. Postal Service, IRS, national debt, for a few, I don't believe they know or understand a policy and liability statement.
40855	Mail	Q52	Nice survey; thought provoking.
40937	Mail	Q52	We compete against Chinese and European manufacturers. We are seriously hampered by environmental regulation that go well beyond what our competitors have to abide by (even the Canadians). We are also impacted by the lack of young people with technical training (mechanics, electricians, controls). This is especially hurtful in comparison to the Europeans. We are impacted by the slow disappearance of an industrial base in the U.S. Twenty years ago the U.S. manufactured much of the equipment that we use; now almost 100% is made in Germany and China. Higher costs (in the case of German goods) and slow response take a toll. We own two facilities in these premises; they are fairly integrated. I have filled out the survey for the joint operation.
41053	Mail	Q52	Business is being pulled down and reduced growth due to government programs that incent people not to seek work. Also, increased regulations and reporting requirements that demand labor cost and result in reduced earnings to fund innovation and growth.
41158	Mail	Q52	We are a pallet broker. I am the only person working.
41322	Mail	Q52	We are a small owner run and worked business in rural America. We do what we do well and take pride in the integrity of our personnel, a good work ethic, and live and work by Judeo-Christian values. This goes a long way toward providing a quality service and people know they can trust us to do an excellent job for them. That's what keeps us in business.
41543	Mail	Q52	Too long for busy business owner, thanks.
41807	Mail	Q52	We are small business that manufactures marble custom made to size. I don't believe this applies to us. We deal with wholesale customers. We manage with little employees.

41964	Mail	Q52	Under present ownership worked 3 years. Prior to acquisition 3 years with "old" company, 6 years total. This company has been in business since 1957. Current owner is a PhD mechanical engineer.
42036	Mail	Q52	The survey seems based on manufacturing of products, or computer based business.
42492	Mail	Q52	Started 6 years ago with one location. Now I have eleven locations. Was no competition when we started; now it is very competitive with hundreds of locations?
42499	Mail	Q52	The question that really needs to be asked is - Do you find the need for any government funded jobs and programs? Answer - Maybe 5 percent of those that are instilled into our economy in the USA I find needed. The other 95 percent are of no help and a waste of taxpayer money.
42625	Mail	Q52	We are a supplier of custom, customer designed parts to OEM's. We offer suggestions only regarding customer designs for improved manufacturability
42666	Mail	Q52	We make ice cream on a small island in the middle of the Pacific ocean, and a lot of the questions do not apply.
42854	Mail	Q52	Some of the survey did not really apply to a non-profit arts program. Hope this info helps.
42880	Mail	Q52	Health Care is out of control. Government involvement is crippling small business. Employee/work force is incentivized by our government to not work, not hold a full time job, and draw unemployment. Entitlements need to stop!
42951	Mail	Q52	Our company's largest challenge and/or lost opportunity in both our production facilities, located in Schofield, Wisconsin, and Springfield, Missouri, is the availability of qualified CNC machine operators, fitters, welders, painters and material handlers that "truly desire full-time long term employment". Therefore, one of our most common practices for new hires is to recruit applicants with less than desirable work skills or qualifications, or applicants that are able to demonstrate long term work experience for whatever reason with former employers. This in turn ultimately contributes to a large portion of our 20% turnover rate that we've experienced over the past several years. Our long standing and most effective practice (on a more limited basis over the past several years) is to hire applicants that are low on work experience or skills but are able to demonstrate a good work ethic with former employers or our HR personnel performing the interview. These new hires are then brought into our job training/progression plan, starting them out at level entry material handling positions. From there, they typically progress in other areas depending individual capabilities and initiative. The problem is we're finding far fewer applicants that "truly desire full-time long term employment" these days as compared to years ago. I honestly believe that this is a result of now generations of unemployable people relying on government programs as opposed to earning a living. If the USDA serious about being part of the solution, this is one area of many that they ought to consider.
43030	Mail	Q52	Thanks for the $2!
43270	Mail	Q52	We have looked into the R&D Tax Credit a couple times but found it cumbersome and too much paperwork for very little credits for a company this size. The program seems built for large corporations. Should be a similar program of credits for small companies. We have not made use of State business development programs but we know some are out there. It takes too much time to wade through all the qualifications ect. from information we find on the internet. It would be better if this State had a department with people who could quickly (about one hour) tell us if we qualify for any state, county, regional development programs.

43506	Mail	Q52	We are non-profit.
43557	Mail	Q52	1. Survey is too long. 2. Innovation is critical for U.S. companies to thrive in global, low-cost, highly competitive B-B business.
43562	Mail	Q52	Key to success: "Hire people smarter than you and work for them." This survey needs to go into your trash as we are not the norm. That is why I haven't filled it out so far. I need to hop into a loader and get to work! Happy New Year.
43803	Mail	Q52	It was hard to answer some questions since I am a veterinarian and this is a veterinary clinic.
44009	Mail	Q52	The biggest issues of this business are Obama Care and government regulations. The second is offshore or Mexican competition. Major customers (corporations) tend to look at component costs rather than delivered product cost to make decisions on purchasing. Government has provided incentives for corporations to go offshore and to Mexico for our products making us non-competitive.
44113	Mail	Q52	In Newport, Oregon; we used to have our branch located in South Beach. We recently moved into Newport to be on the Newport side of the bridge, to be out of the tsunami area, and to have access to faster, more reliable broadband service.
44266	Mail	Q52	Thanks for the $2.00 bill. Government has no place in private enterprise.
44669	Mail	Q52	1) Tell people to work their ass off every day. 2) Treat customers like your best friend. 3) Service people like there is no tomorrow. 4) Don't lie or cheat anyone. 5) Hire the best employees you can and keep them.
44886	Mail	Q52	Need more people trained in welding, bating and manufacturing skills; skilled labor.
44901	Mail	Q52	The lack of high speed internet is severely hurting my business. Banks are also not lending to small businesses in this area.
45015	Mail	Q52	As long as the government continues to have so many assistance programs it will be hard for businesses to find good labor willing to work.
45046	Mail	Q52	This survey may not apply to a law firm, but somewhat.
45143	Mail	Q52	None.
50023	Mail	Q52	Without a way to get money, at reasonable interest rate, there will be very slow growth, or none.
50964	Mail	Q52	Seasonal company only operates September-November and quarters.
51413	Mail	Q52	None.
51442	Mail	Q52	I have worked in this business for 40 years. I sold a similar business in 2010 after owning it (partner or sole proprietor) for 36 years. This business was established and operates on the same model.
52185	Mail	Q52	Small business right now is carrying the load for America. King Obama and his cohorts have no business experience and continue to load up small business with more financial burdens. Everything from Obama Care to extended unemployment to trying to raise minimum wage makes it harder and harder to stay afloat. Unless there is a turnaround in the next election small business will be a category to avoid when making career decisions.

52340	Mail	Q52	Another waste of time and money!
52537	Mail	Q52	Some wages are kept low in order to qualify for Insure Oklahoma. We get a significant rebate on health insurance premiums if employees stay under a certain income. We don't know how Obama-Care will play out in this, but we are good for another year, hopefully. We recycle all possible waste: cardboard, glass, aluminum, and take other packaging materials and re-use for shipping (from other businesses).
52586	Mail	Q52	We are currently researching several innovations to improve our operations in order to be more efficient and profitable for the future of our business. We are looking at various aspects of our manufacturing process and will be a 12-60 month process. We are hopeful for a strong company going forward. I also chose to use this paper form in hopes to keep a tree farmer in business, because it indirectly affects our business. I also hope to keep our postal workers employed.
52643	Mail	Q52	The constant harassment of small business by state and federal agencies making it more difficult to manage. The changing of rules and regulations by government (especially Department of Transportation) that I feel are not cost effective and unfair to some business and industry. These regulations tend to slow down innovation.
53185	Mail	Q52	We are in a rural area that has changed significantly in the past few years. Our business vitality is compromised by those changes.
54002	Mail	Q52	The number one impediment to doing business is the Federal Government. One time individuals who might be interested in working are hooked on unemployment benefits, food stamps, massive fraudulent Social Security Disability payments, state paid health benefits to what degree healthy individuals who could work and don't is immense. When they do work it is for cash, so that they can hide behind their government benefits. For those of us who choose to work, we are now paying higher taxes, supporting those who don't. We also fund government agencies such as OSHS, DOT, EPA and others, that instead of helping and aiding the business community, have become a barrier to growth.
54265	Mail	Q52	Our innovation would most likely to use our experience, gained over time and application of our skills, to offer more and more professional accounting or business services to West Texas.
69999	Mail	Q52	We provide transportation services to individuals and occasionally groups such as weddings, rafting parties, etc. Many of the people we transport have a medical issue. Our biggest problem is locating good vehicles at a price that is affordable or economically viable and the lack of labor we can afford to hire.

20447	Phone	Q29A	I wouldn't say they are not possible, There is no need for it yet.
21256	Phone	Q29A	They're not necessary. From 1910 to today, you do the same thing. If a farmer's got a dead animal, you pick it up.

23822	Phone	Q29A	because we are we are pretty much up to date already with the bus that we do
40606	Phone	Q29A	We haven't had a lot of business lately because of the recession in the building industry and we haven't been able to afford to make any improvements or get any advice on improvements.

43794	Phone	Q29A	The economy is bad.
44359	Phone	Q29A	we have a stable customer base
45117	Phone	Q29A	Because of the refurbishing. You have to restore to the original so it's not really improving anything, it's a restoration.

20761	Phone	THX	The whole survey is not applicable. I'm sorry the USDA is wasting time on a wholesale distributor like us. It just does not seem logical.
21858	Phone	THX	I hope that someone gets something good out of it. MCP 11-21
22476	Phone	THX	If the federal government would get out of everyone's business, that would help everyone's business.

24563	Phone	THX	I am disappointed that there was not any questions on the effect of government mandates and legislation on our business. They have had a severe effect. This is only getting worse.
24596	Phone	THX	We had looked into getting assistance. Unless you're a woman or a minority it's not happening. If you're a basic average white guy you're getting screwed and you better not even try. We believe that private business should be private and government should keep out. The administration now doesn't understand anything about business.

The Q5 greatly improves product consistency, allows tighter variances and allows production operators to adjust the line within seconds based on the Q5's results rather than minutes or hours typical of traditional systems. Formula changes can be made in the process, saving a significant amount of time and labor. Because the Q5 has no moving parts, no maintenance is required, further reducing labor and downtime. Another way for manufacturers to improve their products and their bottom line is with ESE's process control system. Dairy, cheese, egg, ingredient, condiment and beverage manufacturers are able to control the flow of raw materials which in turn ensures consistency of the final product. Production can be done in either batches or continuous process runs, and operator error is minimized because batches are scripted according to preconfigured recipes. These process control systems also allow for systems integration, an efficiency that saves significant time and cost, especially when paired with the Q5 analyzer. All of ESE's analytic and process controls systems are backed by Rockwell Automation, and come with ESE's unparalleled training and support to ensure accuracy, reliability and dependability.

11394	Web	Q52	Our success in innovation has been from working with our customers to improve their process and / or expand their product lines. We have developed and now manufacture several new grapples for the construction and pipeline industry for one of our international customers. 12288	Web	Q52	It would be helpful if you stated up front that there would be an opportunity for comment so participants could note confusing jargon or meaningless terms! (I misplaced the paperwork.) For example, is the discussion of the climate and schools and health care about our employees' well-being? Or whose? Many of the questions are not relevant or are unintelligible. Our half-dozen local competitors in the printing business have all folded, so our only competition is the internet or an hour's drive away. Demand for commercial printing has plummeted across the US and we've not been profitable since 2009. Innovation for us has been laser platemaking, implemented in 2004, and increasingly sophisticated leased Xerox color copiers over the past 10 years, upgraded a year ago to a small "digital press". Keeping up with software and computer upgrades has been a challenge for the last 30 years and that maintenance, not innovation. Our staffing has not changed for many years except for the retirement of a pressman and the departure of a bindery helper. Printing ink on paper has declined significantly since the recession while toner on paper is climbing by nearly the same volume. Our two pressmen have idle time to help with finishing digital output. If we did need skilled labor it would probably be difficult or impossible to find a skilled pressman, but we may just junk our presses when we retire in a very few years (3 to 5). I bought a tiny printing business in 1974 to try to support myself and an infant, not to innovate. Our local and county governments, as well as other businesses, give preference to local businesses to help keep us going and in support of our superior customer service. We must charge a bit more because the cost of living is extraordinary in this resort area. We are a "DBE", Disadvantaged Business Enterprise" (i.e. woman-owned) so receive no-bid printing orders from our transit agency, the second largest in Colo. They are receiving federal dollars so using minority business is really important to them. I am pursuing further government (D.O.T.) subcontract work but it is so time consuming and burdensome that I'm frustrated. There are lots of available resources but I can't devote the time and travel to use them and still run my day-to-day business. IF we stay on track toward profitability I may hire a clerk to take care of some of my paperwork so I can complete additional USDOT and federal certifications. But not many highway construction companies need print jobs. Taking advantage of the chance to review--after closing at 5:00 may be fewer interruptions. Review: What is the meaning of "access to material inputs"? Question 5a is ambiguous. Importance for whom? 10p – could you define what the categories mean? I just guessed. 12 is n/a. Our website is for transferring files, not taking

The issue is finding people willing to WORK and LEARN a stable skill that provides a standard of living! The trades have been victimized in the education system for the last 40 years, our youth have been told if you don't go to college you're a failure. This alone has fueled the further separation between the "have" and "have not's" The drive to learn, work and earn needs to be restored and it needs to start in grade school, any life that's been admired was "built" it didn't just happen and it was the result of someone's hard work and persistence! Not just cause they had a great idea!

We have been trying to introduce them into the energy industry, e.g. natural gas pipeline leak detection by mass balance. We have a few issues where what one agency wants us to do is the opposite of what another agency is pushing us to do. Secondly, concentrate on skill development of the labor pool. Particularly technical training at the high school level. There is an overemphasis on college preparation compared to where most of the job opportunities will actually be, and there is going to be great demand to replace positions of blue collar baby boomer retirees. Manufacturing jobs pay well, increasingly involve technology, are more available than many college degreed tracks, and should be promoted as a viable career path. I can't tell you how many people have earned college degrees that cost them then of thousands of dollars in debt to acquire but with which they cannot possibly get a job within their field of study, while good positions in manufacturing are difficult to fill.

Very disappointing. We are (1) of (3) domestic manufacturers of polypropylene agricultural baling twine manufacturing in the USA. We are the only domestic manufacturer that is still owned by a US company. Our market share is shrinking due to having to compete with products coming in offshore from Portugal, Costa Rica, Vietnam, to say just a few. The import products are much cheaper. As a result, the American farmer is trying to save $$ and therefore switched to an alternative offshore. We provide wages and benefits to the 99 employees at our manufacturing companies. These wages go right back into the local economies. Our offshore competitors take their money from the US and put back into their countries... NOT THE LOCAL ECONOMIES. We are proud to say we also are the only manufacturer who actually goes to the extent of collecting our used twine from the marketplace and recycle. All of our competitors turn their backs Where is help for our American Government to save American manufacturers in our industry? 42243	Web	Q52	We generally do not see government "assistance" resulting in any true or lasting benefit to anyone, whether in business, welfare programs or simply running the overfunded, underperforming government schools. The one exception would be the State of Idaho's Department of Commerce, led by Governor Butch Otter, in its effort to grow exports from the state's manufacturing, agricultural and service sectors. This agency has done a remarkable job in this regard, especially considering how rare it is that any government agency gets anything done at all, let alone anything truly beneficial.
