3. SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS.

You should submit documentary evidence to show both that you have been a permanent resident alien for at least five (5) years, and that you have seven (7) years of continuous residence in the United States after having been lawfully admitted in any status. This evidence may include, but is not limited to, immigration stamps in passports, DHS Form I-94, leases, deeds, receipts, letters, church records, school records, employment records, and tax payment records.

You should also submit with your application copies of any documents which the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), formerly the Immigration and Naturalization Service, issued to you. You should also submit all documents related to your criminal history, including all conviction records. The Immigration Judge may require you to submit additional records relating to your request for cancellation of removal.

The original of all supporting documents must be available for inspection at the hearing. If you wish to have the original documents returned to you, you should also present reproductions.
