Top 3 Reasons to Respond to the 2014 Census of Horticulture:

1. Your operation and your products are a valuable part of the ag industry and should be counted – nursery and floriculture products were more than a $14 billion industry in the United States in 2012.
2. Your input serves as the foundation for many decisions involving the sustainability and growth of your industry.
3. Your responses are required and protected by Federal law. Confidentiality is guaranteed.
