Instructions to Complete Irrevocable, Transferable, Standby Letter of Credit Form P&SP-2600

When you, as a packer, market agency, or dealer, provide a trust agreement to meet the bonding requirements of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended and supplemented, one or more irrevocable, transferable, standby letters of credit, issued by a Federally-insured bank or institution, must also be executed to cover your operation with the Packers and Stockyards Program.

A letter of credit issued toward a trust agreement requires complete and correct information to be submitted to the Packers and Stockyards Program on Form P&SP-2600. If any information is missing or incorrect, the Packers and Stockyards Program will return the letter of credit form to the issuing bank or institution for completion or correction.

Operating without proper registration and bond may subject the principal to severe penalties under law, including a fine of not more than $11,000 for each violation.

Submission instructions for the bank: After completing the letter of credit, a photographically reproduced copy of the letter of credit, a fully executed copy of such trust agreement, and of any endorsements, rider, amendment, indemnity agreement or other attachment to such trust agreement, must be filed with the appropriate regional office. The states covered by each regional office are listed below their address.
