

After GK limitations removal release

Potential New Page

This is a new page in the path. The mock screen is not yet available. The purpose of the new page is to assist the users to report wages for any month that is not the previous calendar month.

“We are only able to accept gross wage reports for the entire month of <current reporting month>. If you need to report wages paid in <current calendar month>, check back on or after <GK Start Date>. To report wages for any other time period, you’ll need to contact your local social security office.”
