0	Conducting assessments and preparing employment plans
0	Working one-on-one with TANF recipients to find jobs
0	Working to identify jobs for TANF recipients at employers (i.e. "job development")
0	Providing group job search instruction (e.g., workshops)
0	Other (Please specify)
	Submit Page and Continue

A10.	On average, what percentage of your time do you spend providing job search assistance activities to TANF recipients? These include conducting assessments and preparing employment plans, providing group job search instruction, working one-on-one with TANF recipients to find jobs, and identifying jobs for TANF recipients. (Please enter a response from 0-100 percent.)
	% OF TIME
	Submit Page and Continue

Quit for now Review my answers E-Mail the HelpDesk Back Jump to other Sections

B5. Please indicate how much emphasis is provided on the following topics during group job search in
--

SELECT ONE RESPONSE PER ROW

MINOR/

	NO EMPHASIS	LIMITED EMPHASIS	MODERATE EMPHASIS	MAJOR EMPHASIS
a. Resume preparation	0	0	0	0
b. Resume preparation	0	0	0	0
c. Use of online job search resources	0	0	0	0
d. Assistance filling out job applications	0	0	0	0
e. Interviewing skills/mock interviews	0	0	0	0
f. Communication in the workplace	0	0	0	0
g. Problem solving (work-related or personal)	0	0	0	0
h. Proper workplace behaviors	0	0	0	0
i. Handling stress and anxiety in the workplace	0	0	0	0
j. Balancing work and family responsibilities	0	0	0	0
k. Other (Please specify)	0	0	0	0

Submit Page and Continue

