

Appendix A, Part 1: Cognitive Testing Protocol

The protocol includes the questions that will be tested, additional questions that provide context for the tested question, and debriefing questions. The goal is to identify the most effective wording for questions and response choices by understanding the associations participants have with terms used in the question wording and how they interpret question meanings. The interviewer may ask unscripted follow-up questions (e.g., “Can you tell me more about that?”) if a participant’s answer suggests additional, pertinent information can be gained.

Introductory Material

- Hi! Thank you for coming in today.
- I am [This is my colleague () who will be taking notes for us today]
- Have you participated in any of our studies before?
- Consent Form/Permission to audiotape
- Explanation:
 - We are going to be working with some questions from the Current Population Survey, an ongoing survey that provides a continuous flow of information about the characteristics of the American workforce.
 - What we are going to do today is go through a few questions from the survey and get your reactions to them.
 - The purpose of today’s session is to help us find out more about how people respond to these questions. Basically, we’re trying to find out what you think a question is asking and how hard it is to answer. We are not here to evaluate you, we are looking to improve the questions, so there are no wrong answers. All the information you give us will be kept completely confidential, and will be used to improve the survey questions.
- Any questions before we begin?

Appendix A, Part 2: Online Testing Protocol (mTurk)

For online testing, debriefing questions will focus on assessing the accuracy of responses to the target questions. The goal is to monitor the responses from a large number of online participants to detect irregular responses. This study will be listed on mTurk as a single task with an initial screening question. The screening criteria for the study will be listed in the study invitation. Potential participants will see the following information on the mTurk site.

OMB Control Number: 1220-0141

Expiration Date: 04-30-2018

Description:	We'll ask you questions related to work you have done for pay within the last week and then ask for your feedback on those questions.
Keywords:	memory, survey, research
Qualifications Required:	Participants in this study must have found paid tasks to complete through a service that links them to customers using a website or app not including Mechanical Turk . Examples include Uber, Lyft, Grubhub, Taskrabbit, Washio, CrowdFlower, etc.
	OR
	Participants in this study must have worked last week for pay.

If they click the link to the study, they will be asked the initial screening question.

If the participant's answer fits the screening criteria for that module, they will be forwarded to a screen with the introductory text on the next page. If they choose to proceed, they will be asked several demographic questions, the focal questions for that module, and then the debriefing questions.

If the participant's answer does not fit the screening criteria, they will see the following text.

"Thank you for your time, but you do not meet the qualifications for this study."

Welcome! Thanks for your interest in our survey. You're here because we have asked you to participate in our research. We are asking you and hundreds of other people to tell us about what they think.

Unlike some surveys or online tasks you may be familiar with, we ask that you complete this survey all at one time and that you only start once you are in a quiet place where you won't be disturbed. The survey will take no longer than 20 minutes to complete. Only share information you're comfortable with - nothing too personal - but please be honest and follow the instructions.

Please do not use your browser's back button.

This voluntary study is being collected by the Bureau of Labor Statistics under OMB No. 1220-0141. We will use the information you provide for statistical purposes only. Your participation is voluntary, and you have the right to stop at any time. This survey is being administered by Qualtrics and resides on a server outside of the BLS domain. The BLS cannot guarantee the protection of survey responses and advises against the inclusion of sensitive personal information in any response. By proceeding, you give your consent to participate in this study.

Appendix A, Part 3: Online Testing Protocol (TryMyUI)

For online testing, debriefing questions will focus on assessing the accuracy of responses to the target questions. The goal is to monitor the responses from a large number of online participants to detect irregular responses. As with mTurk, the screening criteria for the study will be listed in the study invitation. Potential participants will see the following information on the TryMyUI site.

NOTE: This protocol is very similar to the mTurk protocol (Appendix A, Part 2). The main difference is in instructions that encourage the participant to think aloud as they are answering the questions. TryMyUI records audio from the participants' computers.

OMB Control Number: 1220-0141

Expiration Date: 04-30-2018

Description:	We'll ask you questions related to work you have done for pay within the last week and then ask for your feedback on those questions.
Qualifications Required:	Participants in this study must have found paid tasks to complete through a service that links them to customers using a website or app not including TryMyUI . Examples include Uber, Lyft, Grubhub, Taskrabbit, Washio, Amazon Mechanical Turk, CrowdFlower, etc.

All participants who believe they meet the outlined qualifications will be allowed to participate in the study.

Welcome! Thanks for your interest in our survey. You're here because we have asked you to participate in our research.

These questions might be used in a future survey, so we want them to be clear and easy to answer.

Please remember to talk out loud as you answer each question, and mention anything that confuses you or which you find difficult to answer.

The survey will take no longer than 20 minutes to complete. Only share information you're comfortable with - nothing too personal - but please be honest and follow the instructions.

After you have answered the survey questions, a section will appear with some Follow-up Questions. These questions are not survey questions. Instead, they ask for additional information to help us better understand how you arrived at your answer. You answer these questions by talking out loud. If you already provided this information when you were answering the survey question, you don't have to provide it again. Just skip to the next follow-up question.

This voluntary study is being collected by the Bureau of Labor Statistics under OMB No. 1220-0141. We will use the information you provide for statistical purposes only. Your participation is voluntary, and you have the right to stop at any time. This survey is being administered by Qualtrics and resides on a server outside of the BLS domain. The BLS cannot guarantee the protection of survey responses and advises against the inclusion of sensitive personal information in any response.
