Other changes In order to serve its clients better, HUD is including the following non material change. This attached form updates the content for the required Notification to Homeowners of Availability of Homeownership Counseling Services, providing a description of the potential services and benefits of housing counseling. Providing mortgagors with this additional information on housing counseling is expected to increase the number of mortgagors utilizing housing counseling services as they attempt to resolve their delinquency or cure their default, and thus reduce losses to the FHA Mutual Mortgage Insurance Fund. This additional informative form is in accordance with the requirements of Mortgagee Letter 2014-01.
