

The process study does not have a supportive statement B because we are not employing any statistical methods, except some limited descriptive statistics for the survey. This planning phase review is meant to be descriptive and not intended to generalize.