- Identify all units in GSS-eligible fields at your school that have graduate students, postdocs, or other doctorate-holding nonfaculty researchers
- Identify and notify respondents who can report data for each unit in your list
- Submit Part 1 by November 30, 2011.

Part 2: Obtain counts and submit your data:

- For the units identified in Part 1, obtain counts of graduate students, postdocs, and other doctorate-holding nonfaculty researchers by characteristics.

Download Data

On this page, you can download, or transfer, an electronic copy of the data from the GSS Web system to your computer.

Download Data Instructions

Spreadsheet Format

This format is recommended for users who want to save an electronic copy of their survey data on their computer by data type (e.g. part-time race, support). For each data type, a separate comma-separated values (.csv) Excel spreadsheet is provided containing data for all units. The column and row headings are in the same order as the column and row headings used in the GSS Web survey.

Note: This download will not produce postdoc data for 2010 or after. The format for Postdoc data provided here is in the format prior to 2010. To download postdoc data for years 2010 and greater to a spreadsheet, use the "2010 Postdoc Data - Spreadsheet Format" feature below.

Date: From:  to  (Use four digit years, e.g. 2008)

Data Type:

Postdoc Data, 2010 and later - Spreadsheet Format

As the format for the Postdoc data changed in 2010, Postdoc data from 2010 and later must be produced in a separate file. This section of the download page provides an electronic copy of the survey data by data type (e.g. race, support, citizenship, etc). For each data type, a separate comma-separated values (.csv) Excel spreadsheet is provided containing data for all units. The column and row headings are in the same order as the column and row headings used in the GSS Web survey.

Date: From:  to  (Use four digit years, e.g. 2008)

Postdoc Data Type:

Upload/Download Exchange Format

This download is recommended for users who would like to see a sample of their data in the format used to upload data into the GSS system. Data for all units and all data types are provided in one comma-separated data file (.csv) in a format that matches the format needed to upload data using the web system. See Data File Help for a detailed description of the file.

Upload Data

RTI University
Graduate School (1466)

As an alternative to entering your data directly on the Web survey screens, you may upload your data using comma-separated values data files (.csv).

Upload Data Instructions

1. Download a sample file to view your current 2011 data in the new format.
2. In the file you just downloaded, note the GSS Unit IDs contained in the file (column 2). These IDs are the unique identifiers for your units and identify the given unit in your upload file. You may also see these GSS Unit IDs displayed on your printable list of units (shown in column 1).
3. Create a file to upload. See Data File Help for a detailed description of the file.
4. Locate your upload file in the "Browse" window below and click the "Upload" button.
5. Use this link to review your Web survey answers and see your consistency checks: View Part 2 Unit Status

Click Browse to locate your upload file on your computer and click Upload to complete.

Update Your Unit List

Please review your list of organizational units which include teaching units (departments/programs) and research units (research centers/healthcare facilities). The list that is currently stored for RTI University, Graduate School is displayed below.

Important:

- Report clinical psychology separately from all other psychology department or programs
- Report each engineering field (e.g., electrical engineering, mechanical engineering) separately

Retain or add only units with GSS-eligible fields (science, engineering or health fields) that meet one of these three criteria:

- Award degrees (including online degrees) such as MA, MS, PhD or PhD equivalents such as ScD or DEng (The category "PhD or equivalent" excludes degrees such as EdD. It also excludes MD, or other professional degrees.), OR
- Appoint postdoctoral researchers (postdocs), OR
- Employ other doctorate-holding nonfaculty researchers

Do not include units that award professional degrees such as MD, DDS, JD unless they also award a GSS-eligible degree, appoint postdoctoral researchers, or employ other doctorate-holding nonfaculty researchers.

1. Review units: Click on the unit name or GSS code to change, if needed
2. Delete units: Click the "Delete" link to remove units that are not GSS-eligible
3. Add units: Click the "Add Units" button to add any missing GSS-eligible units, and assign each new unit a GSS code

Update Unit Respondents

Please identify a respondent for each unit who will provide counts of the following:

- Graduate students by sex, ethnicity/race, citizenship, enrollment status, and funding
- Postdocs by sex, ethnicity/race, citizenship, type and origin of degree, and funding
- Other doctorate-holding nonfaculty researchers by sex, and type of degree.

For each unit, you may assign:

1. Yourself as the unit respondent and you report the data. If you will be reporting data for all units, you may also assign yourself to all units by using the button immediately above the table or
2. Someone else as a unit respondent to report the data. If you choose this option, respondents may report the data in one of two ways:
  - Offline. Respondents will provide the data to you offline, and you will enter the data into the GSS web survey
  - Online. Respondents will enter the data into the web system directly using an ID and password that you will send them using either the NSF prepared script or a script that you will write and send

After you have assigned all unit respondents, click on the link above the table "Export contact list to Excel" to keep a personal list of all of your unit respondents.

Notify Unit Respondents

Please e-mail the respondents listed in the table below to notify them that they are being asked to participate in this survey.

The purpose of the email from you is to:

1. inform the person that he or she was selected to be a unit respondent
2. describe the role of the unit respondent and the information he or she will provide
3. alert the unit respondents reporting data online, that they will soon receive an email from gss@rti.org with ID and password information.

It is important that you make this initial contact from your own mail system, prior to sending the unit respondent their ID and password using this system, so that they receive notice of this survey from a familiar email address. You may click here to open a new message that will be prefilled with all of the unit respondents shown below that have not received their ID and password.

You may write your own e-mail or click here for Sample E-mail Text. You may copy the contents of this sample into the body of the message you are preparing to send.
