

DPRP Web Site (homepage)

The screenshot shows the CDC Diabetes Prevention Recognition Program (DPRP) homepage. The browser address bar displays the URL <http://www.cdc.gov/diabetes/prevention/recognition/>. The page features the CDC logo and the text "Centers for Disease Control and Prevention" with the tagline "CDC 24/7: Saving Lives. Protecting People.™". A search bar is located in the top right corner. Below the header, there is an alphabetical index from A-Z. The main heading is "National Diabetes Prevention Program". A left sidebar contains a menu for the "National Diabetes Prevention Program" with sub-items: "About the Program", "Marketing Resources", "Prediabetes: Am I at Risk?", "Lifestyle Coach Training", "Diabetes Prevention Recognition Program" (highlighted), "Read the Standards for Recognition", "Get the Curriculum", "Apply for Recognition", "About the DPRP", "Registry of Recognized Programs", "Frequently Asked Questions", "Program Video", "Newsroom", and "Resources". Below the sidebar is a "Related Links" section with a link to "Diabetes Public". The main content area includes a "National Diabetes Prevention Program" link, social media sharing buttons for Facebook, Twitter, and a general share button, and a "Diabetes Prevention Recognition Program" section. This section contains a paragraph: "The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) Diabetes Prevention Recognition Program (DPRP) is a key component of the National Diabetes Prevention Program. The purpose of the DPRP is to recognize organizations that have shown that they can effectively deliver a lifestyle change intervention program (lifestyle intervention) to prevent type 2 diabetes." Below this text is a "Recognition Program Topics" grid with six items: "Read the Standards for Recognition", "About the DPRP", "Get the Curriculum", "Registry of Recognized Programs", "Apply for Recognition", and "Frequently Asked Questions". To the right of the main content are utility links: "Print page", "Get e-mail Updates", "Subscribe to RSS", and "Listen to audio/Podcast". A vertical banner on the right side asks "Could You Have Prediabetes?" and features a "Take the Quiz" button, along with "INFO" and "SHARE" links. The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the system clock as 3:09 PM on 8/7/2014 and various application icons.
