

If you are seeing this sheet, macros are not enabled, please follow the follow

If using Excel 2003:

1. Set the macro security setting to Medium (Recommended) or Low. To change Macro->Security.
2. If the macro security setting is set to Medium, select Enable Macros when opening

If using Excel 2007 and 2010:

1. Set the macro security setting to Disable macros with notifications (Recommended). To change the macro security setting, click the Office Button and select Excel Option -> Macro Settings.
2. If the macro security setting is set to Disable macros with notifications, click the content.

Note: This screen will flash momentarily when you save or finalize this workbook.

URAC Template

Opening steps:

Open the macro security setting, select Tools->

Opening the workbook.

(Recommended) or Enable all macros. To change
Trust Center -> Trust Center Settings ->

Click the Option button and select Enable this