

Direct Filing Addresses for Form I-907, Request for Premium Processing Service

The filing address for Form I-907, Request for Premium Processing Service depends on whether you are requesting Premium Processing Service for Form I-129 or for Form I-140.

Before you file the Form I-907:

- Visit the USCIS “How do I use the Premium Processing service?” page at www.uscis.gov to determine whether the classification you are requesting is eligible for Premium Processing Service.
- Note all the different filing locations below. If you do not follow these instructions, your application or petition may be rejected, delayed, or denied.

Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker

Initial Filings:

If you are requesting Premium Processing Services on Form I-129, you must also file Form I-907. File Forms I-129 and I-907 together to the address listed in the Form I-129 filing instructions.

The Premium Processing Service address for each USCIS Service Center that handles Form I-129 is listed in the Form I-129 filing instructions chart.

To learn where you should file your completed Forms I-907/I-129 packet for Premium Processing Services, visit the USCIS “Direct Filing Addresses for Form I-129” page at <http://www.uscis.gov/i-129-addresses>.

Upgrades for Pending Cases:

If you have already filed Form I-129 and you wish to request Premium Processing Service, file Form I-907 with the USCIS Service Center where your Form I-129 is pending. Include a copy of your Form I-797, Notice of Action, or a copy of the transfer notice (if applicable) showing the location of the Form I-129.

To ensure we match your Form I-907 with your pending Form I-129, you must completely answer Item Numbers 1 through 5 in Part 2 of Form I-907. If you do not provide this information, we will reject your Form I-907.

Form I-140, Immigrant Petition for Alien Worker

Initial Filings:

If you are requesting Premium Processing Service for Form I-140, you must also file Form I-907. Send Forms I-140 and I-907 together to the address listed in the Form I-140 “where to file” instructions. The filing address depends on whether you are filing Form I-140 by itself or with another form.

File the Form I-140 together with Form I-907 at either the USCIS Nebraska Service Center or the USCIS Texas Service Center, depending on the location of the beneficiary's permanent employment.

To learn where you should file your completed Forms I-907/I-140 packet for Premium Processing Services, visit the USCIS “Direct Filing Addresses for Form I-140, Immigrant Petition for Alien Worker” page at <http://www.uscis.gov/i-140-addresses#Alone>.

Upgrades for Pending Cases:

If you have already filed Form I-140 and you wish to request Premium Processing Service, file Form I-907 with the USCIS Service Center where your Form I-140 is pending. Include a copy of Form I-797, Notice of Action, or a copy of the transfer notice (if applicable) that shows the location of the Form I-140.

Service Processing Information

Our goal at USCIS is to process all petitions and applications fairly. The processing time will vary depending on the specific circumstances of each case. We may reject an incomplete request. We may deny your request if you do not give us the requested information or do not go to a scheduled interview.

To request USCIS forms, call our toll-free forms line at 1-800-870-3676. You may also get USCIS forms and information about immigration laws and regulations by calling our National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283 or visiting the USCIS Internet website at www.uscis.gov.

If you change your address, you must complete Form AR-11, Alien's Change of Address Card, according to the instructions on the form.
