

I-907, Request for Premium Processing Service

- Form I-907 (160 KB PDF)
- Instructions for Form I-907 (136 KB PDF)

Purpose of Form

Employers may use this form to request faster processing of certain employment-based petitions and applications. Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker, and Form I-140, Immigrant Petition for Alien Worker, have been designated for Premium Processing Service; however, not all designated classifications within these forms are eligible for Premium Processing Service, and the R-1 classification is only eligible after completion of an on-site inspection at the location of employment. To obtain information on eligible premium processing categories, please visit our "How Do I Use the Premium Processing Service?" page.

Number of Pages

Form 5; Instructions 6.

Edition Date

05/21/14. Previous editions accepted.

Where to File

File your Premium Processing Service request at the address listed at this link: Filing Addresses for Form I-907

Filing Fee

$1,225

Special Instructions

You may be eligible to file this form electronically.

Note: If you are requesting Premium Processing Service on a form type and classification that is Premium Processing eligible, the $1,225 Premium Processing Service fee is required in addition to all other filing fees required by the petition or application to be processed. Checks should be made payable to U.S. Department of Homeland Security.

Religious Workers (R-1): For Form I-129 petitions seeking R-1 classification, USCIS accepts Form I-907 only from petitioners who have previously completed an on-site inspection at the location where the beneficiary will be employed.

Form I-129: Customers may e-File the standalone Form I-907, Request for Premium Processing, for a previously filed Form I-129.

Do not send requests for Premium Processing Service to a USCIS Lockbox facility.

This page can be found at <http://www.uscis.gov/i-907>