SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Paperwork Reduction Act

The collections of information contained in these final regulations have been reviewed and approved by the Office of Management and Budget in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. 3507) under control number 1545-1421. Responses to these collections of information are required to obtain the benefits of the particular election that is the subject of the collection.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless the collection of information displays a valid control number.

The estimated annual burden per respondent varies from 15 minutes to 45 minutes, depending on individual circumstances, with an estimated average of 30 minutes.

Comments concerning the accuracy of this burden estimate and suggestions for reducing this burden should be sent to the Internal Revenue Service, Attn: IRS Reports Clearance Officer, T:FP, Washington, DC 20224, and to the Office of Management and Budget, Attn: Desk Officer for the Department of the Treasury, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Washington, DC 20503.

Books or records relating to this collection of information must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any internal revenue law. Generally, tax returns and tax return information are confidential, as required by 26 U.S.C. 6103.

Background

This document contains final regulations relating to elections under the following sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (Code) and the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993 (Pub. L. 103-66, 107 Stat. 312) (Act):

Act section	Code section
13114	1044(a).
13150	108(c)(3)(C).
13206(d)	163(d)(4)(B)(iii).
13225	6655(e)(2)(C).

On December 27, 1993, the Federal Register published temporary regulations (TD 8509) and a cross-reference notice of proposed rulemaking (IA-62-93), 58 FR 68300 and 58 FR 68336, respectively, relating to these elections. Three written comments responding to the regulations were submitted. Since none of the commentators requested a public hearing, one was not held. After consideration of the comments, the proposed regulations are adopted as final regulations subject to modifications to proposed § 1.108(c)-1, and the corresponding temporary regulations are removed. The comments and a description of the modifications to proposed § 1.108(c)-1 are discussed below.

Summary of Comments and Modifications

All three comments related to the election under section 163(d)(4)(B)(iii), which allows a taxpayer to take all or a portion of certain net capital gains, attributable to dispositions of property held for investment, into account as investment income. As a consequence, the capital gains affected by this election are not eligible for the maximum capital gain rate of 28 percent. The election must be made on Form 4952, Investment Interest Expense Deduction, on or before the due date (including extensions) of the income tax return for the taxable year in which the net capital gain is recognized.

The commentators questioned the authority of the IRS to require a formal election, stated that a formal election will add to the complexity of filing individual income tax returns, and suggested that taxpayers be allowed to freely change the manner in which they treat long-term capital gains, as long as the taxable year is open. These comments were given careful consideration. However, they have not been incorporated into these final regulations. The IRS and the Treasury Department believe that the requirement of a formal election is supported by the language of section 163(d)(4)(B)(iii), is not unduly burdensome, and provides taxpayers with flexibility, since the election is revocable.

The final regulations modify the requirements for making the election for discharge of qualified real property business indebtedness under section 108(c). Under the previous temporary regulations a taxpayer was required to make the election with the taxpayer's income tax return for the taxable year in which the discharge occurred, but was permitted to file an election with an amended return or claim for credit or refund if the taxpayer established reasonable cause for failure to file the election with the original return. The final regulations require the taxpayer to make the election on the timely-filed (including extensions) Federal income tax return for the taxable year in which the taxpayer has discharge of indebtedness income that is excludible under section 108(a). Therefore, a taxpayer that fails to make the election on that return must request the Commissioner's consent to file a late election under § 301.9100-3T or any regulations that supersede § 301.9100-3T.

Special Analyses

It has been determined that these regulations are not significant rules as defined in Executive Order 12866. It also has been determined that section 553(b) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 5) does not apply to these regulations, and because the notice of proposed rulemaking preceding the regulations was issued prior to March 29, 1996, a Regulatory Flexibility Analysis is not required. Pursuant to section 7805(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, the notice of proposed rulemaking preceding these regulations was submitted to the Small Business Administration for comment on its impact on small business.

Drafting Information: The principal author of these regulations is George Bradley, Office of Assistant Chief Counsel (Income Tax and Accounting), Internal Revenue Service. However, personnel from other offices of the Internal Revenue Service and the Treasury Department participated in their development.
