

Instructions for Form I-914, Supplement B, Declaration of Law Enforcement Officer for Victim of Trafficking in Persons*What Is the Purpose of This Form?

Federal, State, and local law enforcement officials should use Form I-914, Supplement B, Declaration of Law Enforcement Officer for Victim of Trafficking in Persons, to provide evidence to United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) that you believe an individual (the applicant) submitting Form I-914, Application for T Nonimmigrant Status, is a victim of a severe form of trafficking in persons and has cooperated with your reasonable requests for assistance in an investigation or prosecution of a crime where trafficking is at least one central reason for the commission of that crime. USCIS (not the Federal, State, or local law enforcement official) will make the decision if the applicant meets the eligibility requirements for T nonimmigrant status.

By signing the Form I-914, Supplement B, you are not conferring an immigration benefit. USCIS is the only agency that can approve the applicant's Form I-914. USCIS requires fingerprints and police clearances from the victim and conducts background and security checks. The applicant must submit other evidence in addition to the Form I-914, Supplement B. The certifying Federal, State, or local law enforcement agency will not be subject to any liability.

When Should I Use Form I-914, Supplement B?

If you, the certifying Federal, State, or local law enforcement official, believe that this individual is or has been a victim of a severe form of trafficking in persons and has cooperated with your reasonable requests for assistance in your investigation or prosecution, you may complete this supplement form. You should complete all fields of this form yourself. The Supplement B must be signed with an original signature. A photocopy of a signed application or a typewritten name in place of a signature is not acceptable. The applicant will then submit Form I-914, Supplement B to USCIS with his or her application for T nonimmigrant status.

You must complete the form based upon your knowledge of the case, including evidence developed by other law enforcement officers involved with the case.

You do not need to formally launch an investigation or file charges to complete the Form I-914, Supplement B. You may complete the Form I-914, Supplement B if an investigation does not lead to an arrest or a prosecution. Completing the Form I-914, Supplement B is not contingent on the outcome of a prosecution or investigation. Completing the Form I-914, Supplement B is at your discretion. There is no statute of limitations related to completing the Form I-914, Supplement B.

Your agency may have its own procedures related to completing the Form I-914, Supplement B.

To be eligible for T nonimmigrant status, the applicant must demonstrate to USCIS that he or she:

1. Is or was a victim of a severe form of trafficking in persons (see Form, Part C, Statement of Claim, for a definition);
2. Is present in the United States as a result of being a victim of a severe form of trafficking in persons (including physical presence based on having been allowed entry into the United States to participate in investigative or judicial processes associated with an act or perpetrator of trafficking);
3. Has complied with any reasonable requests from Federal, State, or local law enforcement in the investigation or prosecution of the trafficking crime of which he or she was a victim; unless
 - a. the applicant is under the age of 18; or
 - b. he or she is unable to cooperate due to physical or psychological trauma; and
4. Would suffer extreme hardship involving unusual and severe harm upon removal from the United States.

These qualifying elements may be established without submitting Form I-914, Supplement B, but submission of the Supplement B is one piece of evidence. USCIS (not the certifying Federal, State, or local law enforcement official) makes the determination on whether the evidence is sufficient and whether the applicant meets each eligibility requirement.
