

Aligned Capital Investor Screener

Form: OPIC-253

OMB Number: [       ]

Expiration Date: [     ]

Instructions

The information in this form is used to determine if an investor may participate in OPIC's Aligned Capital Program and, if an investor does, to place their information into the program. The Aligned Capital Program is a pilot program that OPIC has designed to align development finance with other capital, including philanthropic, socially responsible and impact investment, to enable effective deployment of that capital towards projects in the countries and sectors in which OPIC works.

In order to participate, investors must be U.S. entities and meet the additional specified criteria.

Part D—Disclaimers and Certifications

The person completing this form represents and warrants that you are authorized to register on behalf of the Investor described in this Aligned Capital Investor Screener and that all information provided is accurate and truthful.

The undersigned hereby certifies that the selections herein are consistent with any investment guidelines or limitations applicable to the Investor. The Investor is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of an investment and that purchase of any investment may be deemed to be a speculative investment and is not intended as a complete investment program. The undersigned hereby certifies that the undersigned acknowledges that an investment is designed only for investors who have adequate means of providing for their needs and contingencies without relying on distributions or withdrawals from their investment accounts; who are financially able to maintain their investment; and who can afford the loss of their investment. There can be no assurance that any investment will achieve its objective, and investors may lose all or a substantial portion of their investment.

OPIC does not control, is not responsible for, has not reviewed and does not endorse any investee that is participating in the Aligned Capital Program. OPIC does not warrant the accuracy, completeness or usefulness of the information provided by third parties. Participation by an investee in this program does not imply a commitment by OPIC to support the project.

The information provided does not constitute investment advice. Users need to consult with their own investment, accounting, legal and tax advisers to evaluate independently the risks, consequences and suitability of any investment made by them.

OPIC may terminate the program at any time, with or without notice.

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice: This is a voluntary information collection, however an investor may not participate in the Aligned Capital Program unless this form is completed. Public reporting burden for this collecting of information is estimated to average twenty minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information.
