TITLE OF INFORMATION COLLECTION: Paul D. Coverdell World Wise Schools Teacher Surveys – Speakers Match

PURPOSE:

The Peace Corps’ Office of Public Engagement promotes the contributions that returned Peace Corps Volunteers make in the United States after their service. The Office of Public Engagement comprises Paul D. Coverdell World Wise Schools, the Paul D. Coverdell Fellows Program, Returned Volunteer Services and the Partnership Unit. The Office of Public Engagement’s activities and publications support section 2 of the Peace Corps Act, which states that one of the agency’s missions is to “promote a better understanding of other peoples on the part of the American people.” 22 USC § 2501. Coverdell World Wise Schools was established in 1989 in order to bring the cross-cultural experience of Peace Corps Volunteers into the classrooms of the United States. Within the purview of Coverdell World Wise Schools (CWWS), educators participating in the CWWS program, Speakers Match, are offered the opportunity to participate in a voluntary survey in order to help CWWS improve the quality of the program.

Survey Details

The Coverdell World Wise Schools Speakers Match teacher survey is used only by the Coverdell World Wise Schools office to help improve the quality of the Speakers Match program, support teachers in their use of this program in the classroom, and better serve the needs of educators. The teacher survey will be sent (electronically) only to those teachers who have signed up to participate in the Speakers Match program. The most recently conducted teacher survey responses lead to the development of new customer service protocols to support educators using the Speakers Match program.

Who will conduct the survey? Peace Corps’ Coverdell World Wise Schools office staff will conduct the survey with guidance from Peace Corps’ Office of Strategic Information, Research and Planning (OSIRP).

Where will we conduct the survey? The surveys will be conducted via an online survey tool provided by Peace Corps’ Office of Strategic Information, Research and Planning (OSIRP).

When will we conduct the survey? The survey will be conducted beginning in spring 2012 and continue annually as clearance allows.

DESCRIPTION OF RESPONDENTS:
