

FinCEN Resource Center's Regulatory Support Section and FinCEN Website Customer Satisfaction Survey FY 2018

Introduction

The Financial Crimes Enforcement Network's Resource Center (often referred to as the FRC) is committed to serving and satisfying their customers. FinCEN records indicate that you submitted an inquiry to their Regulatory Support Section Resource Center over the past year, and FinCEN is interested in assessing the usefulness of that inquiry experience.

The survey will take approximately 5 minutes to complete. CFI Group will treat all information you provide as confidential. All information you provide will be combined with others' for research and reporting purposes. Your individual responses will not be released. This survey is authorized by the U.S. Office of Management and Budget Control No 1090-0007, which expires May 31, 2018.

ACSI Benchmark Questions

Now we are going to ask you to please consider your experiences with the FRC’s Regulatory Support Section with respect to the following:

ACSI1. First, please consider all your experiences over the past 12 months in seeking regulatory guidance from the FRC’s Regulatory Support Section. Using a 10-point scale on which “1” means “Very dissatisfied” and “10” means “Very satisfied,” how satisfied are you with FinCEN’s Resource Center?

ACSI2. To what extent has the FRC’s Regulatory Support Section met your expectations? Please use a 10-point scale on which “1” now means “falls short of your expectations” and “10” means, “Exceeds your expectations.”

ACSI3. Forget about FinCEN for a moment. Imagine the ideal Resource Center. How well does FinCEN's Resource Center compare with that ideal? Please use a 10-point scale on which "1" means "Not very close to the ideal" and "10" means "Very close to the ideal."

Open-end

OE1. What, if anything, can the FRC's Regulatory Support Section do to better serve your needs?

OE2. What, if anything, can FinCEN do to improve its website as a resource for finding pertinent regulatory guidance and information?
