Title 18 U.S.C. § 923 and 27 CFR 478.41-78 provides the requirements for obtaining a Federal firearms license (FFL). These provisions require applicants for an FFL to certify, among other things, that the firearms business or activity will be conducted in compliance with State and local law.

The purpose of this application is to require a licensee who moves the licensed premises to a different location during the term of an existing license to certify that the firearms business or activity at the new location will be conducted in compliance with State and local law. Each licensee submitting the ATF Form 5300.38, Application for an Amended Federal Firearms License, must send or deliver a completed copy of such application to the Chief Law Enforcement Officer (CLEO) of the locality in which the new premises are located, as required by § 923(d)(1)(F)(iii).

- 1. Notice of the new location of the business or activity must be filed with ATF not less than 30 days prior to establishing the business or activity at the new premises. To allow for ample processing time, it is recommended ATF Form 5300.38 be submitted as soon as the new premises location is known.
- 2. TYPE or PRINT with ball-point pen and provide your signature on back of form. All attached sheets must:
  - a. Be identified at the top of each page with your license name and license number.
  - b. Refer to the question(s) being answered.
- 3. ATF Form 5300.38 must be executed (signed) by an existing responsible person (RP) on the license.
- 4. If you have questions relating to this application or to obtain an e-mail address for your state or district's examiner to submit your request electronically, please contact the ATF Federal Firearms Licensing Center toll free at 1-866-662-2750.

Definition

- 1. Chief Law Enforcement Officer The Chief of Police, the Sheriff, or an equivalent designee of such individual.
- 2. Business Premises Premises from which the FFL conducts business or from which he intends to conduct such business.
- 3. Change in Business Structure A change from one business type to another (Partnership to Corporation, Individually Owned to LLC, etc.)
- 4. Responsible Person In addition to a Sole Proprietor, a Responsible Person is, in the case of a corporation, partnership, or association, any individual possessing, directly or indirectly, the power to direct or cause the direction of the management, policies, and practices of the corporation, partnership, or association, insofar as they pertain to firearms.

Privacy Act Information

The following information is provided pursuant to Section 3 of the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. § 552a(e)(3)):

- Authority. Solicitation of this information is authorized pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 923(a) of the Gun Control Act of 1968. Disclosure of this information is mandatory if the applicant wishes to obtain a Federal firearms license. System of records notice (SORN) Justice/ATF-008 Regulatory Enforcement Record System FR Vol. 68 No. 16 3558 dated January 24, 2003.
- 2. Purpose. To determine the eligibility of the applicant to obtain a firearms license, to determine the identity of responsible person(s) in the business or activity, to determine the ownership of the business or activity, and to determine the type of firearms or ammunition to be dealt in, the business hours, and the business history, if applicable.
- 3. Routine Uses. The information will be used by ATF to make determinations set forth in paragraph 2. In addition, information may be disclosed to other Federal, State, foreign, and local law enforcement and regulatory agency personnel to verify information on the application and to aid in the performance of their duties with respect to the enforcement and regulation of firearms and/or ammunition where such disclosure is not prohibited by law. The information may further be disclosed to the Department of Justice if it appears that the furnishing of false information may constitute a violation of Federal law. Finally, the information may be disclosed to members of the public in order to verify the information on the application when such disclosure is not prohibited by law.
- 4. Effects of Not Supplying Information Requested. Failure to supply complete information will delay processing and may result in denial of the application.
- 5. Disclosure of Social Security Number. Disclosure of the individual's social security number is voluntary. Under 18 U.S.C. § 923(a), ATF has the authority to solicit this information. The number may be used to verify the individual's identity. See Section 7(b) of the Privacy Act.
