	You've come a long way and made many sacrifices to provide a good life for your family. Sure, the work is hard but it's worth it.
FADE TO AN ILLUSTRATED SCENE OF A WORKSITE THAT GOES WITH THE THEME OF THIS VIGNETTE	MUSIC TURNS SOMBER. PERHAPS A DRUM BEAT RATHER THAN A MELODY.
	But getting hurt on the job can put everything at risk. Is there anything you can do to protect yourself and your family from unhealthy or even dangerous work conditions?
CAMERA FADES BETWEEN INTERVIEWEE AND SIMPLE ILLUSTRATIONS OF A MAN FALLING OFF OF A ROOF, A MAN TALKING TO COWORKERS (COWORKERS SHAKING HEAD).	"I work as a roofer and I'm busy all the time. This is good because it means more money for me and my friends. But sometimes we have to work too fast because they need us on another job. "When we work fast we can't always be as careful as we'd like. Last week, one of my co-workers fell off a roof because he was working too fast - he hurt himself very badly. I've heard there is equipment that can protect you from falling off the roof but I don't know what it is or where to get it. I like working hard but I don't want to be a cripple for life."

CAMERA FADES BETWEEN INTERVIEWEE AND SIMPLE ILLUSTRATIONS OF A MAN WORKING AT MEATPACKING COMPANY, MASSAGING HIS HANDS, MAYBE A TIME CLOCK OR SOME OTHER WAY TO SHOW TIME.	Story #6: Consequences to family after an injury/disability/time away from work I work in a meat packing company. The pay is good, but the work is hard and the lines run very fast. My arms get very sore and sometimes they just give out, but I keep going, because that's my job, right? I started to get pain in my fingers, wrists and shoulders. Every morning I have to massage my hands because they are stiff. If this continues I'm afraid I won't be able to work anymore. Is there anything I can do?
