

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1 hour per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to: NIH, Project Clearance Branch, 6705 Rockledge Drive, MSC 7974, Bethesda, MD 20892-7974, ATTN: PRA (0925-0648). Do not return the completed form to this address.

---

Focus group question guide:

How would you describe Project SHARE program and website to another student?

Please, talk about your likes and dislikes.

Would you recommend a health literacy program build around this site to another student? Why or why not?

What were the main things that you learned from using Project SHARE materials?

Please, comment about how Project SHARE online materials affected your understanding of health concerns in your community.

What ways of addressing these health concerns have you learned?

What do you think about your ability to participate in addressing these health concerns?

Can you talk of any program-related experiences where something did not turn out as you had hoped? How did you handle that? Was the website helpful to you in that?

Can you talk of any program-related experiences where you had to resolve disagreements? Was the website helpful to you in that?

What did you learn from the Project SHARE website about ways to find quality health information on the web? (Probes: what information assessment criteria have you learned? Can you name some reliable health information sites?)

What did you learn from Project SHARE about ways to communicate health information to others effectively? Can you give examples of how you used this knowledge?

How did working with Project SHARE affect your relationship with your team members?

Overall, how interesting were Project SHARE materials? How clear / easy to use? How appropriate for your age group?

What recommendations do you have for the next version of Project SHARE?