

CPARD SCREEN SHOTS FOR ICR RENEWAL

The following eight CPARD sections (screens) capture the login screen and information reported annually by states and tribes.

1. CPARD Login Screen

2. Applicator Totals

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <http://cpard.wsu.edu/applicatorTotals.aspx>. The browser's address bar shows the CPARD logo and a 'My Workplace' tab. The page header includes the Washington State University logo and the text 'World Class. Face to Face.' with navigation links for 'CAMPUSES', 'WSU HOME', 'WSU SEARCH', and 'myWSU'. The main content area is titled 'CPARD - A NASDA Foundation and EPA Cooperative Agreement Project' and 'Applicator Totals'. A navigation menu on the left lists various sections under 'POINTS', 'Part I', and 'Part II'. The main content area displays the title 'TEST EPA Oct 1, 2014 - Sep 30, 2015' and a message: 'Applicator Totals : There is no record for 2015'. Below this, there are three sections for data entry: 22a. Total number of initially certified applicators during this reporting period. 22b. Total number of recertified applicators for the annual reporting period. 22c. Total number of certified applicators on your books at the end of this reporting period. Each section has two input fields for 'number of individuals with commercial applicator certification' and 'number of individuals with private applicator certification'. A 'SAVE' button is located at the bottom of the form. At the bottom of the page, there is contact information for Richard Pont and Carol Ramsay, along with accessibility and copyright notices. The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the system clock as 11:28 AM on 10/8/2015.
