Prepare separate claims for each disease. DO NOT include mortgaged and nonmortgaged items in the same claim. All items are self-explanatory, except as follows:

2. To be completed by VS District or Area Office, or the Appraisal Section of the READEO.
3. Complete in all cases even when only one page is involved.
5. The date cleaning and disinfection was actually accomplished as evidenced by a statement signed by the owner-claimant and on file, or a statement signed by a regulatory representative who supervised the cleaning and disinfection. When cleaning and disinfection is not required or is not indicated, an entry such as "Not Required" or "Open Range, No C&D" should be inserted.
10. Report number of animals or units. Explain in Item 25 if obtained by other than actual count.
11. Identify species, e.g., cattle, sheep, pheasant, chickens, etc.
15. For animals, report tags, brands, tattoos, etc. When indicated use a description, e.g., (pheasant) "golden," (parrot) "Brazilian, trained and talking," etc. For materials, any description which will identify the item, e.g., "wood feed bunk."
16. Price per head, per cwt., per board foot, each, etc.
19. Record value for the units described in this line.
20. Record the value of animals claimed as being purebred and registered, recorded or otherwise entered in an Association or Society book, and meeting program requirements for "Registered" animals. Canceled Registration certificates must be filed with the claim at the applicable office in Item 2.
21. To be obtained from VS Form 1-24 when animal has been salvaged and salvage value is used in the calculation of indemnity.
- 23-24. Complete in accordance with specific instructions for the disease involved (at State or VS Office).
25. Source of Printing Data. Whenever a value is established for an animal or for a unit of material, or for a group of animals or units of like class and value, a source of such value must be listed. This is especially important when the appraised item has an unusual value. Some sources or factors used for this purpose are: Price at _____ Livestock market on (date) or price at a (named) local source for animals of like quality and purpose; Proven sire; bill of sale; trained; trained to perform; production record of _____ lbs. or _____ doz; daily rate of gain of _____ lbs. in official test; preconditioned; team mascot; rare species or mutation; check endangered species list – talks; racing; proven breeder; pedigreed breeding flock; primary breeding flock; multiplier flock; etc.
- 26-27. Signature and title of the regulatory representative completing claim and/or making the appraisal.
- 28-29. Signature and title of a special expert appraiser whenever one is used to make the appraisal.
30. Legal signature of owner-claimant. Must agree with Items 6 or 8. NOTE: The applicable entry in the owner-claimant mortgage certification must be initialed by owner-claimant prior to signature. The claim must be signed prior to the destruction of animals and/or materials or reasons to the contrary documented and approved.
- 33-37. To be completed when animals are mortgaged. Separate claims for mortgaged and nonmortgaged animals should be prepared.
- 38-41. This section must be signed and completed by an authorized State or other local cooperating agency official indicating the name of the State or agency and the official title of the representative if State indemnity will be paid.
- 42-45. Whenever all information necessary to substantiate every element of the claim has been obtained, and is filed with each claim, and every action has been completed, it should be recommended for payment by the signature of the official or acting official in charge. Completion of this section will imply certification as to the correctness of each claim, including justifying statements in Item 25 and other substantiating documents in the station files.
