INSTRUCTIONS

This packet contains (Total Number) papers/publications for your review. Please review each of the papers in this packet while considering the following:

- The impact of each researcher's individual paper(s) on the field of cancer research.
- The impact of a researcher's set of papers, taken as a whole, on the field of cancer research.
- The innovation of the approaches taken in the researcher's individual paper(s).
- The innovation of the approaches taken in the researcher's set of papers taken as a whole.

Please read through this entire form before you begin your review. Links to the papers you will be reviewing are included directly in this document.

If you are reviewing more than one set of papers, you will be sent a separate review sheet for each set. Please complete each review sheet separately for each set of papers you are being asked to review.

If you have any questions as you proceed, please contact (name) and (email address).

The review entry form begins on the next page.
