

Privacy Act Statement Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 802, 803 and 806, of the Social Security Act, as amended, authorize us to collect this information. We will use the information you provide to make a determination of eligibility for Special Veterans benefits.

Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide us with all or part of the information may prevent an accurate and timely decision on any claim filed.

We rarely use the information you supply us for any purpose other than make a determination regarding benefits eligibility. However, we may use the information for the administration of our programs including sharing information:

1. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from our records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office and Department of Veterans Affairs); and,
2. To facilitate statistical research, audit, or investigative activities necessary to ensure the integrity and improvement of our programs (e.g., to the Bureau of the Census and to private entities under contract with us).

A list of when we may share your information with others, called routine uses, is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notice 60-0089, entitled Claims Folders Systems; 60-0103, entitled Supplemental Security Income Record and Special Veterans Benefits; and, 60-0273, entitled Social Security Title VIII Special Veterans Benefits Claim Development and Management Information System. Additional information about these and other system of records notices and our programs are available online at www.socialsecurity.gov or at your local Social Security office.

We may also use the information you provide in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State or local government agencies. Information from these matching programs can be used to establish or verify a person's eligibility for federally funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect payments or delinquent debts under these programs.
