Instrument Instructions:

Great, let's get started! Here's how it works:

1.

At the top of the page, you will be given a task, asking you to find a certain item. Below the task, you will be presented with a list of links.

2.

Within each set of links, select the one that you think will help you best accomplish the task.

3.

If you take a wrong turn, you can go back by clicking one of the links above. Please don't use the back button on your browser.

Note: This is not a test of your ability; there are no right or wrong answers.

<Continue> (Link to Tasks)

Content Hierarchy

Each task (below) prompts a user to select the term in the hierarchy where they would expect to complete the task. Content is presented in a collapsed hierarchy, forcing users to expand a category to review the terms within. Primary content categories (in bold) are not selectable as an “answer,” forcing users to drill down to select where they would complete the task.
