

Colorado River Basin Symposium and Colorado Plateau Research Conference email to Non-respondents only.

Dear Colorado River Basin Science and Management Symposium [or Colorado Plateau Research Conference] Attendee:

I thought I would send you one final request concerning the survey I am conducting of those who attended the Colorado River Basin Science and Management Symposium [or Colorado Plateau Research Conference] held in Scottsdale, Arizona.

Your response to this survey is valuable regardless of your level of participation in the conference. This shortened version of the survey will only take about 5 minutes to complete. I hope you will take the time to participate.

Please click on the link below and enter the following access code on the first page of the survey.
