

Request for Approval under the “DOI Generic Clearance for the Collection of Qualitative Feedback on Agency Service Delivery”
OMB Control Number: 1090-0011

TITLE OF INFORMATION COLLECTION: Assessment of USGS science for next-generation infrastructure needs

PURPOSE: As an agency within DOI, USGS performs the science the Nation needs on its lands, waters and ecosystems. We characterize our Nation’s natural assets and threats by sampling and mapping them; we monitor to provide situational awareness; we model to provide forecasts, and we communicate these products to industry and to the public. When these four elements are wisely focused, they provide our American enterprise with the right tools for the challenges we face together. The Nation trusts these tools because, since 1879, we have provided facts without advocacy. In short, USGS provides knowledge before national action.

The USGS faces challenges to that mission. Our American enterprise is changing as the economy evolves. This matters. USGS needs to adapt our focus so we continue to provide the right service to this evolving enterprise.

The US Geological Survey (USGS) requires feedback on the question of what national science knowledge we need to plan and build the next generation of our Nation’s infrastructure. This research will solicit views of our current quality of service, and point towards science needs from a broad cross-section of our national infrastructure enterprise, including public and private industry leaders in infrastructure planning, construction and financing.

DESCRIPTION OF RESPONDENTS: This feedback on USGS service will solicit input from the Nation’s public and private industry leaders in infrastructure planning, construction and financing. The research will include analysis of the infrastructure science needs by specific categories including engineering & construction, government, insurance and financing.
