Section A
Employment - Based Nonimmigrant Visa Information

1. Enter one of the following classification symbols to indicate the type of visa supported by this application: "H-1B", "H-1B1 Chile", "H-1B1 Singapore" or "E-3 Australian." When filing this application electronically, the system will provide a dropdown of these approved visa classification symbols.

The H-1B visa allows an employer to temporarily employ a foreign professional worker in the U.S. on a nonimmigrant basis in a specialty occupation or as a fashion model of distinguished merit and ability. A specialty occupation requires the theoretical and practical application of a body of specialized knowledge and a bachelor's degree or the equivalent in the specific specialty (e.g., sciences, medicine and health care, education, biotechnology, and business specialties, etc...).

The H-1B1-Chile visa applies to those employers temporarily hiring business professionals who are nationals of Chile under the Chile Free Trade Agreement.

The H-1B1-Singapore visa applies to those employers temporarily hiring business professionals who are nationals of Singapore under the Singapore Free Trade Agreement.

The E-3 visa applies to those employers temporarily hiring business professionals who are nationals of Australia under Title V of the REAL ID Act of 2005 (Division B) in the Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act for Defense, the Global War on Terror, and Tsunami Relief, 2005.

Section B
Temporary Need Information

1. Enter the title of the job opportunity for which the labor condition application is being sought by the employer.
2. Enter the six or eight-digit Standard Occupational Classification (SOC)/Occupational Network (O*NET) code for the occupation, which most clearly describes the work to be performed.. For example, the six-digit SOC code for a computer systems analyst is 15-1051.00. Appendix I provides a mapping of the current 3-digit Dictionary of Occupational Title (DOT) codes to the SOC/O*NET classification system authorized for use with this form. You may use the 3-digit DOT code to complete the I-129 petition for USCIS.
3. Enter the occupational title associated with the SOC/O*NET (OES) code. For example, the occupational title associated with SOC/O*NET code 15-1051.00 is "Computer Systems Analyst".
4. Enter whether this position is full-time by indicating "Yes" or "No". Although there is no regulatory definition for full-time employment, the Department generally considers 35 hours per week as the distinction point between full-time and part-time.

Note: If this position is part-time, the employer attests that the foreign worker(s) supported by the LCA will not regularly work more than the number of hours indicated (which may be a range of hours) on the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services Form(s) I-129 filed for the nonimmigrant(s). Note: All foreign workers under the LCA must be part-time if question 4 is marked "No"; all foreign workers must be full-time if question 4 is marked "Yes."

5. Enter the beginning date for the worker's period of employment. Use a month/day/full year (MM/DD/YYYY) format.
6. Enter the end date for the worker's period of employment, which cannot be more than three years after the start date for H-1B LCAs and initial H-1B1 LCAs. The end date for the worker's period of employment for E-3 LCAs and H-1B1 extensions cannot be more than two years after the start date. Use a month/day/full year (MM/DD/YYYY) format.
7. The collection of this item contains two parts. First, enter the number of worker positions being requested for certification. Second, use collection items (a) through (f) to enter the number of foreign workers in each applicable USCIS defined category under which you plan to file various Form I-129s for the workers so that the sum of the numbers in (a) through (f) equals the total number of worker positions requested. Every box MUST be filled. If the employer plans to request no foreign workers in a particular category, please indicate "0 (zero)."

Section I
Additional Employer Labor Condition Statements – H-1B Employers ONLY

All H-1B employers are required to complete Section I of this form in order for an application regarding an H-1B nonimmigrant to be processed. See 20 CFR 655.736 for more detailed guidance as to what constitutes an “H-1B employer” or a “willful violator.”

a. Subsection 1

NOTE: The determination as to whether an employer is H-1B dependent is a function of the number of H-1B nonimmigrants employed as a proportion of the total number of full-time equivalent employees employed in the United States. The following table can be used to determine whether the employer is an H-1B dependent employer:

NUMBER OF FULL-TIME EQUIVALENT EMPLOYEES (U.S. WORKERS AND H-1B WORKERS)	NUMBER OF H-1B NONIMMIGRANT EMPLOYEES
1 to 25	8 or more
26 to 50	13 or more
51 or more	15% or more of the workforce (US and H-1B workers)

Labor Condition Application for Nonimmigrant Workers
ETA Form 9035CP – General Instructions for the 9035 & 9035E
U.S. Department of Labor

1. Mark "Yes" or "No" if the employer is H-1B dependent. The employer is an H-1B dependent employer if the number of H-1B nonimmigrants employed by the employer as a proportion of the total number of full-time equivalent employees employed in the United States matches the chart above.

If an employer marks "No" and is or becomes H-1B dependent, the submitted labor condition application shall be deemed invalid and may not be used in support of a new petition or extension of a petition for an H-1B nonimmigrant. By marking "No", the employer also acknowledges that if it uses this application despite its invalidity, it is required to comply with the Additional Employer Labor Condition Statements in Subsection 2 of section H.

2. Mark "Yes" or "No" if the employer is a willful violator. The employer is willful violator if the employer has been found during the five (5) years preceding the date of the application (and after October 20, 1998) to have committed a willful violation or a misrepresentation of a material fact.

If an employer marks "No" and was found, prior to the date of filing, to have committed a willful violation or a misrepresentation, the submitted labor condition application shall be deemed invalid and may not be used in support of a new petition or extension of a petition for an H-1B nonimmigrant. By marking "No," the employer also acknowledges that if it uses this application despite its invalidity, it is required to comply with the Additional Employer Labor Condition Statements in Subsection 2 of section I.

3. Mark "Yes" or "No" to this question after marking "Yes" to question 1 or 2 of Subsection 1 in Section I AND the employer intends to use this application ONLY to support H-1B petitions or extensions of status for expected H-1B nonimmigrants who will receive wages at a rate equal to at least $60,000 per year, or have attained a master's degree (or equivalent or higher degree) in a specialty related to the employment. The employer also agrees to maintain documentation required by 20 CFR 655.737.

If an employer marks "Yes" the employer acknowledges that if it uses this application in support of a petition or extension of a petition of an H-1B nonimmigrant who is not exempt, it is required to comply with the Additional Employer Labor Condition Statements in Subsection 2 of section I with respect to all H-1B nonimmigrants supported by this application.

b. Subsection 2

All employers that are (1) H-1B dependent (as defined above) and/or (2) have been found to have committed a willful violation or a misrepresentation of a material fact during the five (5) year period preceding the date of this application (and after October 20, 1998), must read and agree to statements (A) through (C) below and demonstrate that agreement by marking "Yes" in Subsection 2 of Section I of this application. The employer agrees to develop and maintain documentation supporting labor condition statements (1) and (4) as specified in 20 CFR 655.738 and 655.739, and to make this document available to Department of Labor officials upon request. The employer also agrees to make available for public examination a copy of the labor condition application and necessary supporting documentation as specified in 20 CFR 655.760 within one (1) working day after the date on which the application has been filed with the Department of Labor. This documentation must be retained for public examination at the place of employment or the employer's principal place of business as specified in Section J of this form. The employer agrees:

- (A) Displacement: The employer will not displace any similarly employed U.S. worker within the period beginning 90 days before and ending 90 days after the date of filing a petition for an H-1B nonimmigrant supported by this application.
- (B) Secondary Displacement: The employer will not place any H-1B nonimmigrant employed pursuant to this application with any other employer or at another employer's worksite UNLESS the employer applicant first makes a bona fide inquiry as to whether the other employer has displaced or intends to displace a similarly employed U.S. worker within the period beginning 90 days before and ending 90 days after the placement, and the employer applicant has no contrary knowledge.

If the other employer displaces a similarly employed U.S. worker during such period, the displacement will constitute a failure to comply with the terms of the labor condition application and the employer applicant may be subject to civil money penalties and debarment. See 20 CFR 655.738.

The employer will (has) offer(ed) the job to any U.S. worker who (has) applied and is equally or better qualified than the H-1B nonimmigrant

Under the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) Section 212 (n)(1)(G)(ii), 8 U.S.C. 1182, this labor condition statement "C" does not apply to the employment of an H-1B nonimmigrant who is a "priority worker" (defined as a person with extraordinary ability, or outstanding professors or researchers, or certain multi-national executives or managers) within the meaning of Section 203 (b)(1)(A), (B), or (C) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1153.
