GENERAL INFORMATION

Background.--This proceeding was instituted in response to a petition filed on March 31, 2017, by North American Steel & Wire, Inc. /ISM Enterprises, Butler, PA. Antidumping duties may be assessed on the subject imports as a result of these proceedings if the Commission makes an affirmative determination of injury, threat, or material retardation, and if the U.S. Department of Commerce ("Commerce") makes an affirmative determination of dumping. Questionnaires and other information pertinent to this proceeding are available at http://wwwadmin.usitc.gov/investigations/title_7/2017/carton_closing_staples_china/preliminary.htm

Carton closing staples are fastening devices used to secure or close the flaps of corrugated and solid paperboard cartons and boxes. Carton-closing staples are manufactured from steel wire and commonly have a copper-coating or a zinc (galvanized) coating. Carton-closing staples manufactured from stainless steel wire are also covered.

Carton-closing staples include stick staple products, often referred to as staple strips, and roll staple products, often referred to as coils. Stick staples are lightly cemented or lacquered together to facilitate handling and loading into stapling machines. Roll staples are taped together along their crowns.

Carton-closing staples vary by the size of the wire, the width of the crown, and the length of a leg. The leg length ranges from 0.45 inch to 1.375 inches and the crown width ranges from 1.125 to 1.375 inches. The size of the wire used in the production of carton-closing staples varies from 0.033 to 0.058 inch (thickness) by 0.073 to 0.096 inch (width). Staples that deviate from these dimensions by 10 percent or less in any aspect are covered.

Two examples of basic carton-closing stick staples, although there are others, are the "A" staple and the "C" staple. The "A" staple has a crown of 1 3/8 inches (35 mm) and the "C" staple has a crown of 1 ¼ inches (32 mm). "A" staples are produced using wire that is 0.037" x 0.092" and are available with legs that are 5/8 inch, 3/4 inch, or 7/8 inch. "C" staples are produced using wire that is 0.037" x 0.074" and are available with legs that are 5/8 inch or 3/4 inch. Roll staples are produced in the same sizes and dimensions.

All carton-closing staples meeting the physical descriptions in this scope are covered, regardless of whether they are coated, uncoated, or the type of clothing, regardless of whether they are produced from steel wire or stainless steel wire, and regardless of whether they are imported in stick form or roll form.

Carton-closing staples subject to this investigation are currently imported under statistical reporting numbers 8305.20.0000 and 7317.00.6560 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States ("HTSUS"). The HTSUS provisions are for convenience and customs purposes; the written description of the scope is dispositive.
