Section 1322 of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (ACA) requires the Secretary to award federal loans to foster the creation of consumer-governed nonprofit health insurance issuers (CO-OPs) to compete in the Exchanges. Under the CO-OP program, CMS provides Start-up Loans to assist with start-up costs and Solvency Loans<sup>1</sup> to assist with State solvency requirements. The statute requires loan recipients to repay the Start-up Loans within 5 years and Solvency Loans within 15 years, taking into consideration State reserve requirements, solvency regulations, and requisite surplus note arrangements (collectively referred to as “solvency requirements”).

Recipients of Start-up Loans and Solvency Loans are required to submit financial documents to CMS on a quarterly basis starting with the quarter in which loan funds are first disbursed and ending with the quarter in which the loan recipient completes repayment of all loans awarded under the CO-OP program. If a loan recipient seeks to be deemed certified for an Affordable Insurance Exchange, the organization must submit the documentation requested in Part II of this document demonstrating that it has met the requirements for being a qualified health plan pursuant to Section 1311 of the Affordable Care Act, once every two years for as long as the loan recipient seeks to be deemed.

Progress reports must be submitted to CMS semi-annually starting with the reporting period in which loan funds are first disbursed and ending ten years following the date on which the loan recipient completes repayment of all loans awarded under the CO-OP program. The progress report describes significant advances towards the loan recipient's goal of becoming a viable and sustainable CO-OP. CMS will use the information provided on the progress report and the financial report to monitor the CO-OP's performance, ensure the appropriate use of federal funds, and verify that the loan recipient is conforming to the requirements in its loan agreement.

The following reporting guidelines are intended as a framework and can be modified when agreed upon by the CMS project officer and the loan recipient. If any of the requested information is readily available to CMS through another source (from example, an Exchange), CMS may choose not to collect the information from the loan recipient directly. A complete progress report must detail how loan funds were utilized; describe program progress and challenges; and provide an update on the measurable objectives of the CO-OP program.
