| Serving as an Awardee | HPP's current awardees include the public health departments of all 62 U.S. states, territories, directly-funded cities (Washington D.C., Chicago, Los Angeles County and New York City), and freely-associated states. ASPR has proposed that Congress allow for competition for HPP cooperative agreement funds by allowing state and directly-funded cities governmental public health departments, academic medical centers, health care systems, and state and local hospital associations to apply to serve as the direct federal awardee for their jurisdiction. Each funded state and jurisdiction (directly-funded city, territory, or freely associated state) will still only receive one award; however, this proposal will create competition between governmental public health departments, academic medical centers, and state and local hospital associations within each state and jurisdiction for the award and allow HPP to fund the entity that presents the most innovative approaches to health care delivery system readiness. 4. Based on this proposal, please indicate your Trauma Center's level of interest in serving as a state- or jurisdiction-wide HPP awardee, (Please note this is a proposal, and your response not binding):  Not interested Potentially Interested Interested I Don't Know   <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>  |
