

Evaluation of the justice AmeriCorps (jAC) Legal Services for Unaccompanied Children Program

Interview for other jAC program stakeholders

Administration Procedures:

- Affected Public: These questions will be asked by jAC organization representatives of judges/court administrators during site visits and by phone.
- Paperwork Reduction Act Advisal: Under the Paperwork Reduction Act, a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number. In accordance with the Act, collection instruments and instructions are created that are accurate, can be easily understood, and which impose the least possible burden on you to provide us with information. The estimated average time to complete this information collection is 75 minutes. If you have comments regarding the accuracy of this estimate, or suggestions for making this form simpler, you can write to the Executive Office for Immigration Review, Office of the General Counsel, 5107 Leesburg Pike, Suite 2600, Falls Church, Virginia 20530.

Questions:

- 1) Have you seen differences in children in immigration proceedings who have a jAC representative and those who do not? (Note: Depending upon the jAC coverage in the court, alter the wording of this question appropriately. Can ask respondent to compare to before jAC program existed in the court or to children in the court not covered by jAC.)
- 2) Do you feel that the children who have a jAC representative are better informed? If yes, which aspects are they more informed about?
- 3) Do you feel that the children who have a jAC representative are more prepared for court? If yes, in what ways?
- 4) Do you feel that the children who have a jAC representative have a better understanding of court processes? If yes, which processes do they understand more than those without a jAC representative or pre/post jAC?
- 5) What do the children who have a jAC representative seem to understand about their relief options?
- 6) Are there parts about the court or court process the children who have a jAC representative still seem confused about? If so, what are those parts?
