

If you are seeing this sheet, macros are not enabled, please follow the f

If using Excel 2003:

1. Set the macro security setting to Medium (Recommended) or Low. To Macro->Security.
2. If the macro security setting is set to Medium, select Enable Macros wh

If using Excel 2007 and 2010:

1. Set the macro security setting to Disable macros with notifications (R the macro security setting, click the Office Button and select Excel Optic Macro Settings.
2. If the macro security setting is set to Disable macros with notification: content.

Note: This screen will flash momentarily when you save or finalize this workbook.

Following steps:

change the macro security setting, select Tools->

then opening the workbook.

(recommended) or Enable all macros. To change
on -> Trust Center -> Trust Center Settings ->

Options, click the Option button and select Enable this