The screenshot shows a web browser window with a blue title bar. The title bar text is "IPPRIMO P [redacted] on ipprod/austria [Connected]". The menu bar includes "File", "Edit", "View", "Options", "Window", and "Help". The address bar contains several icons and the text "ipprod/austria". The main content area features a large black redaction box at the top. Below it, the text reads: "to select the initiated items. Under the price determining characteristics, dye weight and chemical composition were not available for all items. Mr. Picha did not think that this information was very important and did not want to take time to provide it to us. Mr. Picha was only willing to reprice quarterly. He will reprice in January, April, July, and October. He will reprice using web repricing." This is followed by the name "Tom Lamar" and "Atlanta Region". A section titled "Send Back Comments:" contains a large empty text input field. At the bottom of the content area are two buttons: "Append Comments" and "Print Comments". The status bar at the bottom left shows "Click here to begin" and "Close Active Screen".
