

#..SEC-3

System name:

Notification of Exemption from Registration under the Securities Act of 1933--SEC.

System location:

These records are maintained in the Commission's Regional and District Offices for the geographical areas covered by those offices. Duplicate copies also may be maintained in the headquarters office in Washington, DC.

Categories of individuals covered by the system:

Records include information on officers, directors, principal shareholders, and certain other persons having a relationship with or a transaction with a registrant that has utilized one of the exemptions, such as Regulations A, B, E and Rule 146F under the Securities Act of 1933.

Categories of records in the system:

The records describe the individual's relationship to a registrant and other relevant material business information about the individual.

Authority for maintenance of the system:

Title 15, United States Code, Section 77c(b).

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses:

These records and the information in the records may be used as follows:

1. By SEC personnel in processing registration statements and periodic reports and other documents required to be filed with the Commission under provisions of the Federal securities laws; may also be used in responding to inquiries from Members of Congress or the public concerning a registrant and in preparing no-action letters.
2. By SEC personnel for purposes of investigating possible violations of the Federal securities laws. Where there is an indication of a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute, or by regulation, rule or order issued pursuant thereto, the relevant records in the system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency, whether Federal, State, local, foreign or a securities self-regulatory organization charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute or rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto.
3. When considered appropriate, records in this system may be referred to a bar association or similar Federal, State or local licensing authority for possible disciplinary action.
4. A record from this system of records may be disclosed as a ``routine use'' to a Federal, State or local governmental authority maintaining civil, criminal or other relevant enforcement information or other pertinent information, such as current licenses, if necessary to obtain information relevant to an agency decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit.

5. A record from this system of records may be disclosed to a Federal, State or local governmental authority, in response to its request in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.

6. As a data source for management information for production of summary descriptive statistics and analytical studies in support of the function for which the records are collected and maintained or for related personnel management functions or manpower studies; may also be utilized to respond to general request for statistical information (without personal identification of individuals) under the Freedom of Information Act or to locate specific individuals for personnel research or other personnel management functions.

7. In any proceeding where the federal securities laws are in issue or in which the Commission or past or present members of its staff is a party or otherwise involved in an official capacity.

8. In connection with investigations or disciplinary proceedings by a State securities regulatory authority or by a securities self-regulatory organization involving one or more of its members.

In connection with their regulatory and enforcement responsibilities mandated by the Federal securities laws (as defined in section 21(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. 78u(g)), or state or foreign laws regulating securities or other related matters, records in this system of records may be disclosed to national securities exchanges and national securities associations that are registered with the Commission, the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board, the Securities Investor Protection Corporation, the federal banking authorities, including but not limited to, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Comptroller of the Currency, and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, state securities regulatory or law enforcement agencies or organizations, or regulatory or law enforcement agencies of a foreign government.

Records in this system may be disclosed as a routine use to any trustee, receiver, master, special counsel, or other individual or entity that is appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction or as a result of an agreement between the parties in connection with litigation or administrative proceedings involving allegations of violations of the Federal securities laws (as defined in section 21(g) of the Securities Exchange Act, 15 U.S.C. 78u(g) or the Commission's rules of practice, 17 CFR 202.1 et seq. or otherwise, where such trustee receiver, master special counsel or other individual or entity is specifically designated to perform particular functions with respect to, or as a result of, the pending action or proceeding or in connection with the administration and enforcement by the Commission of the Federal securities laws of the Commission's rules of practice.

Records in this system may, in the discretion of the Commission's staff, be disclosed to any person during the course of any inquiry or investigation conducted by the Commission staff, or in connection with civil litigation, if the staff has reason to believe that the person to whom the record is disclosed may have further information about the matters related therein, and those matters appeared to be relevant at the time to the subject matter of the inquiry.

A record or information in this system may be disclosed to any person with whom the Commission contracts to reproduce, by typing, photocopy or other means, any record within this system for use by the Commission and its staff in connection with their official duties or to any person who is utilized by the Commission to perform clerical or stenographic functions relating to the official business of the Commission.

Records or information in records contained in this system may be disclosed to members of advisory committees that are created by the Commission or by the Congress to render advice and recommendations to the Commission or to the Congress. to be used solely in connection with their official, designated functions.

Records or information in the records in this system may be disclosed as a routine use to any person who is or has agreed to be subject to the Commission's rules of conduct. 17 CFR 202.785-1 et seq., and who assists in the investigation by the Commission of possible violations of Federal securities laws (as defined in section 21(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. 78u(g)), in the preparation or conduct of enforcement actions brought by the Commission for such violations, or otherwise in connection with the Commission's enforcement or regulatory functions under the Federal securities laws.

Disclosure may be made to a congressional office from the record of an individual in response to an inquiry from the congressional office made at the request of that individual.
