HIMC (REVERSO)

Medicare original

- Usted puede seleccionar sus médicos y hospitales.
- Generalmente, usted o su cobertura suplementaria pagan los deducibles y coseguros.
- Si desea tener cobertura para recetas médicas, debe unirse a un plan de recetas médicas independiente – una póliza separada para recetas médicas solamente.
- Usted puede comprar un plan Medigap, el cual puede ayudar con los gastos no cubiertos por Medicare.

Medicare Advantage (HMOs, PPOs, PFFS)

- Puede requerir que usted vea a los proveedores de salud de la red de ellos o dejar que usted los escoja y pague más por los costos.
- Usualmente usted paga un copago o coseguro por los servicios cubiertos.
- Muchos planes incluyen planes para recetas médicas. Este le dará toda su cobertura en un plan.
- Generalmente no es necesario ni está disponible un plan Medigap.

Medicaid

- Plan público de cuidado de salud que ayuda a hacer que Medicare sea más asequible para los beneficiarios con bajos ingresos y recursos limitados.
- A los beneficiarios de Medicare que además están inscritos en Medicaid se les llama “doble mente elegibles.”
- Puede estar automáticamente inscrito en un plan de recetas médicas de Medicare y ser elegible para subsidio por bajo ingreso o “ayuda extra”.

TRICARE/TRICARE For Life

- Plan de cuidado de salud para miembros en servicio activo, jubilados y sus familias.
- TRICARE generalmente paga los cobros pendientes después que Medicare ha hecho sus pagos.
- No es necesario inscribirse en un plan de recetas médicas de Medicare. Si usted se inscribe en un plan Medicare Advantage con cobertura para recetas médicas, TRICARE no pagará por medicinas.

Planes públicos distintos a Medicaid

- Incluye programas estatales, de condado o ciudad tales como un programa de farmacia, en el que el gobierno local proporciona descuentos para las medicinas con receta.
- El seguro proviene de fuentes públicas distintas a Medicare o Medicaid
