Occasionally, questions are added to the survey to obtain information on important crime issues. The Census Bureau feels a strong need for an independent measure of the data's quality. 5. WHY DO I HAVE TO ANSWER ALL THESE QUESTIONS WHEN I ALREADY TOLD YOU NO CRIMES WERE COMMITTED AGAINST US IN THE PAST SIX MONTHS?

6. I DON'T HAVE ANY CRIMES TO REPORT. WHY DON'T YOU INTERVIEW MY NEIGHBOR? I KNOW HE'D HAVE SOME CRIMES TO REPORT.

It is just as important for us to interview people who have had crimes committed against them as it is for us to interview people with no crimes.

One of the major statistics we publish is how many people are victims of crimes. We could not get that figure if we did not interview non-victims as well as victims. In addition, analysts compare the demographic characteristics of victims and non-victims to see if certain kinds of people have a risk of becoming victims of certain kinds of crime.

7. I ANSWER ALL YOUR QUESTIONS BUT CRIMES STILL OCCUR. THIS SURVEY DOESN'T SEEM TO BE WORKING.

We merely collect the information and pass it on to the criminal justice planners and legislators who are able to make changes in the criminal justice system that effect the crime rates. These people need to know how much crime occurs and where it occurs to make informed decisions about criminal justice policy.
