Privacy Act Statement

The Privacy Act of 1974 requires that when we ask you information about yourself, we state our legal right to do so, tell you why we are asking for it, and how it will be used. We must also tell you what could happen if we do not receive it, and whether your response is voluntary, required to obtain a benefit, or mandatory. Our legal right to ask you for the information is 5 U.S.C. 301 and Executive Order (E.O.) 9397. We are asking for this information to determine your suitability as an employee (direct hire or contracted), consultant or advisor of the Internal Revenue Service.

If you do not provide us with this information, it may adversely affect our ability to consider you. Any adverse information will be shared with the appropriate IRS office(s) and may be disclosed to other federal agencies as required by law. Requesting you Social Security Number, under authority E.O. 9397, is also voluntary and no right, benefit, or privilege provided by law will be denied as a result of refusal to disclose it.
