"You are about to use a kiosk that is owned by the Vancouver Airport Authority and that is used to facilitate processing by U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) of travelers intending to enter the United States. The information you provide at this kiosk will be transmitted to CBP for official use and retention consistent with applicable U.S. laws and policies. The use of this kiosk is voluntary; if you do not wish to use this kiosk, please proceed directly to CBP primary examination. Regardless of whether you choose to use this kiosk, as a traveler seeking to enter the United States, you are subject to examination and inspection by CBP.	The U.S. Paperwork Reduction Act says we must tell you why we are collecting this information, how we will use it, and whether you have to give it to us. The information collected at this kiosk is needed to carry out the customs, agriculture, currency, and other applicable laws of the United States. CBP requires submission of this information to insure that travelers are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of duty and tax. Your response at this kiosk is mandatory; in some instances, you may also be required to complete a CBP Form 6059B. A U.S. agency may not conduct or sponsor an information collection and a
