

5. Approximately how often are you unable to open or download journal articles that you want to read due to lack of access?

- I am always able to open or download journal articles I am interested in.
- Most of the time I am able to open or download journal articles I am interested in.
- Occasionally I am not able to open or download journal articles I am interested in.
- Often I am not able to open or download journal articles I am interested in.

6. How often do you typically have the Ames Library order a journal article not available via the existing subscriptions or databases (i.e. inter-library loan or direct article purchase)

- Weekly
- Monthly
- Occasionally
- Never

7. Do you use a librarian service for assistance conducting searches?

- Yes
- No

8. How do you typically conduct literature searches? Check all that apply.

- Ames Library website
- Other NASA resources (e.g. ADS)
- Academic/university website
- Google scholar/commercial source (i.e. not part of the Ames/NASA library)
- Find referenced publications from another (related) article
- Specify your own value:

9. Which search capability that Ames does not currently have would you like to see?
Please list:

10. How do you typically determine which articles to download/read?

- Read the abstracts of many different articles and download only the ones you know you want.
- Download several articles related to your topic of study and then decide what you need.
- Specify your own value: