Frequently Asked QuestionsHow can I contact VA if I have a question?

If you have questions about this form, how to complete it, or about benefits, contact your nearest VA regional office. You can locate the address of the nearest VA regional office on the Internet at www.va.gov/directory, in your telephone book blue pages under "United States Government, Veterans." For information you may also call 1-877-294-6380 (Hearing Impaired TDD line 711). You may also contact VA by the Internet at: <https://iris.va.gov>.

When do I use VA Form 21P-527?

Use VA Form 21P-527 to apply for disability pension if you have previously filed a claim for compensation and/or pension. For. For. For. For. For. For. For expeditious processing under the Fully Developed Claim process use VA Form 21-527EZ, Application for Pension. VA forms are available at www.va.gov/vaforms.

What is disability pension and how does VA decide what I will and will not receive?

You should apply for pension benefits if all of the following are true:

- Your income is limited
- You are permanently and totally disabled not necessarily as a result of your military service, or are age 65 or older
- At least part of your active duty was during a wartime period

VA pays disability pension based on the amount of income that the veteran and his/her family receive and the number of dependents in the family. VA must include all sources of income that Federal law specifies. You can find out what the current income limitations and rates of benefits are by contacting your nearest VA office.

VA may pay benefits from the date of receipt of your application unless severe disability prevented you from filing a claim for a period of at least 30 days. If you want this claim considered for retroactive payment, indicate so in Item 36, "Remarks," and identify the specific disability which prevented you from filing.

What is special monthly pension?

VA may pay a higher rate of disability pension to a veteran who is blind, a patient in a nursing home, otherwise needs regular aid and attendance, or who is permanently confined to his or her home because of a disability. If you wish to apply for this benefit, check "Yes" in Item 22A.

What medical evidence should I submit?

If you are age 65 or older or determined to be disabled by the Social Security Administration, you do not have to submit medical evidence with your application unless you are claiming special monthly pension. Otherwise, provide only those medical records that are related to the disabilities that prevent you from working.

If you wish to claim special monthly pension and are not in a nursing home, furnish a statement from your doctor showing the extent of your disabilities. If you are in a nursing home, attach a statement, signed by an official of the nursing home showing the date you were admitted to the nursing home, the level of care you receive, and whether Medicaid covers all or part of your nursing home costs.

If you want help getting medical records related to this claim, you may complete VA Form 21-4142, Authorization and Consent to Release Information to the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) or VA Form 21-0779, Request for Nursing Home Information in Connection with Claim for Aid and Attendance. By signing VA Form 21-4142, you authorize any doctors, hospitals, or caregivers that have treated you to release information about your treatment to VA. You do not need to complete this form for any treatment you received at a VA facility. If you need a copy of the VA Form 21-4142 or VA Form 21-0779, you may contact VA as shown in "How can I contact VA if I have a question?" or download the forms from the VA web site www.va.gov/vaforms.
