Collection and Use of Information From Your Application Privacy Act Notice/Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

Section 1631(e)(1)(B) of the Social Security Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. 1383(e)) authorizes us to collect this information. We will use the information you provide to identify bona fide loans of food and shelter made to applicants for Social Security Income (SSI) benefits. This information will permit us to determine the value, if any, of food and shelter received by the SSI applicant. The information you provide on this form is voluntary. However, failure to provide all or part of the requested information may prevent us from making an accurate and timely decision on the SSI applicant's claim or could result in the loss of his or her benefits.

See revised
statement below.

We rarely use the information you provide on this form for any purpose other than for the reasons explained above. However, we may use it for the administration and integrity of Social Security programs. We may also disclose information to another person or to another agency in accordance with approved routine uses, which include but are not limited to the following:

1. To enable a third party or an agency to assist Social Security in establishing rights to Social Security benefits and/or coverage;
2. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from Social Security records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office, General Services Administration, National Archives Records Administration, and the Department of Veterans Affairs);
3. To make determinations for eligibility in similar health and income maintenance programs at the Federal, State, and local level; and
4. To facilitate statistical research, audit, or investigative activities necessary to assure the integrity of Social Security programs.

We may also use the information you provide in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State, or local government agencies. Information from these matching programs can be used to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federally-funded and administered benefit programs for repayment of payments or delinquent debts under these programs.

A complete list of routine uses for this information is available in our Systems of Records Notices entitled, Claims Folder System, 60-0089 and Supplemental Security Income Record and Special Veterans Benefits System, 60-0103. These notices, additional information regarding this form, and information regarding our programs and systems, are available on-line at www.socialsecurity.gov or at your local Social Security office.

Paperwork Reduction Act Statement - This information collection meets the requirements of 44 U.S.C. § 3507, as amended by section 2 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. You do not need to answer these questions unless we display a valid Office of Management and Budget control number. We estimate that it will take about 10 minutes to read the instructions, gather the facts, and answer the questions. SEND OR BRING THE COMPLETED FORM TO YOUR LOCAL SOCIAL SECURITY OFFICE. You can find your local Social Security office through SSA's website at www.socialsecurity.gov. Offices are also listed under U. S. Government agencies in your telephone directory or you may call Social Security at 1-800-772-1213 (TTY 1-800-325-0778). You may send comments on our time estimate above to: SSA, 6401 Security Blvd, Baltimore, MD 21235-6401. Send only comments relating to our time estimate to this address, not the completed form.

Privacy Act Statement Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 1612(a)(2)(A) and 1631(e)(1)(B) of the Social Security Act, as amended, authorize us to collect this information. We will use this information to identify bona fide loans of food and shelter made to Supplemental Security Income (SSI) applicants. We will use this information to determine an income value, if any, of food and shelter the applicant received.

Furnishing us the information is voluntary. However, failing to provide all or part of the requested information may prevent us from making an accurate and timely decision on the applicant's SSI claim or could result in the loss of benefits.

We rarely use the information you supply for any purpose other than for determining eligibility for benefits. However, we may use the information for the administration of our programs including sharing information:

1. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from our records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office and Department of Veterans Affairs); and,
2. To facilitate statistical research, audit, or investigative activities necessary to ensure the integrity and improvement of our programs (e.g., to the Bureau of the Census and to private entities under contract with us).

A list of when we may share your information with others, called routine uses, is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notices 60-0089, entitled Claims Folder System and 60-0103, entitled Supplemental Security Income Record and Special Veterans Benefits System. Additional information about these systems of records notices and our programs is available from our Internet website at www.socialsecurity.gov or at your local Social Security office.

We may also use the information you provide in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State, or local government agencies. We use the information from these programs to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federally funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect payments or delinquent debts under these programs.
