

FY 2010 and FY 2011 Survey of State Government Research and Development

The National Science Foundation and the U.S. Census Bureau are conducting the FY 2010 and FY 2011 Survey of State Government Research and Development to determine the extent of R&D expenditures by departments and agencies for FY 2010 and FY 2011. The data collected in this survey are from public records and do not require confidentiality. Your voluntary survey response will be compiled by the Census Bureau and forwarded to NSF, the federal agency charged with collecting and reporting national R&D statistics. These statistics are used to measure states' contributions to our nation's science and technology base, a building block of a strong U.S. economy.

Your State Coordinator has identified your department/agency as potentially having conducted and/or funded R&D activities in FY 2010 and FY 2011. Your State Coordinator is:

- Name Field
- Office Address Field
- Agency Respondent Email Field

Below is the survey website URL and your User ID.

- Website: <http://harvester.census.gov/nsf>
- UserID: New UserID Field
- For security reasons, you will receive your Password in a separate email.

Once you access the website, you will find an overview for completing the survey, as well as detailed definitions and examples of key survey terms. Your State Coordinator will review your responses after you have completed the survey. Please contact your State Coordinator or me if you have questions or comments. We greatly appreciate your participation in this effort, and thank you in advance.
