Please keep this letter for future reference.

This report is required by law and confidential. Title 13, United States Code, Sections 131 and 182 authorizes this collection. Sections 224 and 225 require businesses and other organizations that receive this questionnaire to answer the questions and return the report to the Census Bureau. Section 9 of the same law ensures that your response is confidential and will only be used for statistical purposes. Information collected cannot be used for taxation, regulation, or investigation and is exempt from release under the Freedom of Information Act. Public reporting burden for this survey is estimated to average 45 minutes per response. You may use reasonable estimates if book figures are not readily available. On the back of this letter you will find disclosure descriptions regarding Office of Management and Budget number; authority and confidentiality; and burden estimate statement.

The U.S. Census Bureau is conducting the Management and Organizational Practices Survey to better understand current and evolving management and organizational practices and to assist in identifying determinants of establishment and productivity growth. Census data are essential for business and government decision making. Information from businesses like yours also provides reliable data for your industry and your community.

If you need assistance completing the survey, visit us online at <https://econhelp.census.gov/mops>. For further assistance, please call our customer help line at 1-800-233-6136 weekdays between 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Eastern time.

Thank you in advance for your time and cooperation, and for helping the U.S. Census Bureau measure America's people, places, and our economy.

Sincerely,

John H. Thompson
Director
US Census Bureau
