

Baldrige Examiner Application Pages

The following message is on the home page of the Examiner Application. The notwithstanding statement is repeated on p. 13 under the letter from the director.

Baldrige Examiner Application Pages

The following Examiner Application is used by returning examiners and new examiner applicants. The returning examiners see a few pages prepopulated with their current information from the Baldrige database. New applicants click on the "Create Your Account" link to create an account to submit an application.

Applicant receives the username and temporary password by e-mail and logs in to the system.