Paperwork Reduction Act Statement

Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, no person is required to respond to, nor shall any person be subject to a penalty for failure to comply with, a collection of information subject to the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act, unless that collection of information displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

The reason for collecting this information is to determine eligibility for the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award (award). The information obtained will assist in the selection process. Responses to the collection of information are not required to be disclosed under the Freedom of Information Act to the extent possible under law.

Use updated notwithstanding statement

Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award responses to the collection of information are not required to be disclosed under the Freedom of Information Act to the extent possible under law.

The public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 15 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering the data, reviewing the collection of information, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to initial response of the first-time applicant (this includes the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering the data, reviewing the collection of information, and completing and reviewing the collection of information). For the award in future years, this burden may decrease. Estimated average burden per response: 15 minutes.
