Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. To the extent you elect to defer payment of estate tax under Internal Revenue Code section 6166, we have determined that you are required to provide a bond in favor of the United States as security for that election. In lieu of a bond, you may elect to provide a lien under section 6324A. You are not required to elect to provide a lien as security for the deferral of payment of estate taxes. However, if you do make such an election you are required to provide the information requested on this form. We collect this information under the authority of Internal Revenue Code Section 6324A. This information is necessary to ensure that you are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax. Failure to provide the information may delay or prevent processing your request and may ultimately result in a denial of your election to defer estate tax under Internal Revenue Code Section 6166. Under section 6109, you must disclose the decedent's SSN.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential as required by section 6103. However, section 6103 allows or requires the Internal Revenue Service to disclose or give such information shown on your Form 13925 to others as described in the Code. For example, routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice to enforce the tax laws, both civil and criminal, and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths or possessions for use in administering their tax laws. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and states agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.
